BUSINESS PICKS UP IN TARIFF CAUCUS

Refusal to Pass Amendment Precipitates Lively Clash

SENATOR HITCHCOCK REVOLTS

Hitchcock's Amendment to Place Graduated Income Tax on Tobacco Defeated in Caucus—Exit the Senator.

Washington, July 2.—When Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, withdrew from the Democratic tariff caucus today because that body voted down his amendment that would put a graduated income tax on tobacco production, he precipitated the liveliest time the Senate Democrats have had since they began consideration of the tariff measure.

Senator Hitchcock's revolt, which he later declared did not mean that he had withdrawn from the party, or that he would support the party measure, served to determine that there will be a binding resolution passed by the caucus, pledging the Senators to support the bill as ratified, to refrain from introducing any amendment not proposed by the Finance committee majority, and not to support any amendments offered from the Republican side.

It was because he anticipated such a resolution that the Nebraska Senator announced that he could not remain in the caucus, because he intended to introduce his tobacco tax amendment in the Senate, and to lead a fight there for its adoption. When, in the course of his talk to the caucus, the Senator announced his decision and the reasons therefor, many of his colleagues who had supported him in the vote on his amendment, pleaded with him to remain in the room. There was considerable excitement as Senator after Senator urged Mr. Hitchcock not to go out, assuring him that he could be granted the privilege of bringing up his amendment without taking such a drastic course.

Senator Hitchcock declared, however, that there was no other course open, and left the room while the excitement was at its height.

The vote on the amendment was 23 to 18, the Senators supporting it being Ashurst, Burton, Clark, of Arkansas; Fletcher, Hitchcock, Hollis, Lea, Kern, Martine, Myers, Newlands, O'Gorman, Pomerene, Robinson, Saulsbury, Sheppard, Shields and Vardaman. All the members of the Finance committee voted against the amendment.

After the excitement had calmed down statements were issued by Senator Simmons, chairman of the Finance committee, who opposed the amendment, and Senator Kern, chairman of the caucus, who supported it. Senator Simmons said:

"The caucus declined to adopt the so-called Hitchcock amendment to the tariff bill principally because it did not consider it wise to attempt in a tariff measure to deal with the trust evil. It was felt that the trust question should be dealt with as a separate one as soon as it could be reached, and only after such thorough and mature consideration as the great importance of the subject required. Moreover, such consideration could not now be given to it by the Finance committee, the caucus and the Congress, without unduly delaying final action upon the tariff bill and disappointing the public desire for its early settlement."

"The vote on Senator Hitchcock's amendment," said Senator Kern, "has no significance as indicating any sympathy with the tobacco trust, or any other monopoly on the part of any member of the conference. On the contrary, there was a unanimous sentiment in favor of drastic legislation on that subject. Nearly all who opposed the resolution based their action upon the theory that the tariff bill should not be loaded down with general legislation and especially with legislation directed against one trust and affecting none of the others.

"All agreed that every Democratic platform pledge on the subject of trusts and monopolies should be faithfully carried out by legislation carefully drawn for that purpose."

Tonight the caucus adjourned until tomorrow afternoon, when it will have before it the matter of extending the date for the sugar tariff to become effective. The majority of the Finance committee will meet in the morning to consider the child labor resolution, the time for making effective the wool schedule, and some odds and ends of the bitll.

It was stated tonight that there now was no disposition in the committee to change the date of effectiveness for the wool schedule, and the recommendation of the committee to the caucus probably will be that the wool rates become effective immediately after the passage of the bill. Modification of the amendment championed by Senators Hughes and Thomas, to prohibit the entry of goods manufactured by child labor, which was referred back to the Finance committee, is assured. It was indicated tonight that when the committee got through with it, the claim could not be made that it was an impediment to American trade, or protection to American manufacturers.

Senator Simmons said that the completed bill would be reported to the Senate next Monday or Tuesday, together with the committee report and that the caucus would complete consideration of the measure Friday or Saturday.

MEETING OF PROGRESSIVES

Colonel Roosevelt Addresses Assembly on Party Issues Touches on Social and Industrial Problems

Newport, R. I., July 2.—The demand made in the first National platform of the Progressive party for regulation of corporations and combinations to "insure their doing justice to their rivals, to their customers and to their employes, has been emphasized," Theodore Roosevelt declared this afternoon at the clambake which opened the National conference of the Progressive party, by what has occurred since the election in the West Virginia bituminous coal fields.

In opening his speech, Colonel Roosevelt pointed to the Progressive platform upon which he ran for the Presidency last Fall as a document which upholders of social and industrial justice in the future will recognize as one of the great documents of American political history. From it he cited two demands—the first that the National government undertake on a gigantic scale the work of harnessing the flood waters of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, using for that purpose the outfit that has been used in the construction of the Panama canal. The second demand already referred to, Colonel Roosevelt dwelt upon at considerable length. He quoted from court decisions and declared that he wished he could make the men of property understand that in fighting such decisions and such conditions as in West Virginia he was fighting against anarchy in favor of law and order and for property.

Attacks "New Freedom"

"The utter futility of the plan of action, or rather non-action, advocated in both the Republican and Democratic platforms last year, and christened by President Wilson with magniloquent vagueness 'The New Freedom,' has been strikingly shown by what has thus occurred in West Virginia," Colonel Roosevelt declared. "'The New Freedom' is nothing whatever but the right of the strong to prey on the weak, of the big men to crush the little men, and to shield their iniquity beneath the cry that they are exercising freedom."

Colonel Roosevelt's speech this afternoon sounded the keynote of the Progressive policies and opened the discussion of party ideals and ideas that will continue two days. Referring again to President Wilson's article on "The New Freedom," Colonel Roosevelt said:

"A careful study of the articles that have appeared by President Wilson dealing with this subject since he was President has left me somewhat puzzled as to what he really does mean, but of course I assume that there must be a meaning, and if this assumption is warranted then 'The New Freedom' means nothing whatever but the old license translated into terms of pleasant rhetoric.

"There is but one way to interfere with freedom to inflict slavery on others, and that is by invoking the supervisory, the regulatory, the controlling and directing power of the government precisely as the Progressives last year demanded in their platform and as I and others like me demanded in our speeches."

West Virginia Conditions

Dealing with the regulation of corporations and cobbinations and using the West Virginia strike as the basis for his arguments for the adoption of Progressive principles, Colonel Roosevelt said in part:

"What is needed is the thorough rooting out of the conditions which brought about the dreadful state of affairs in the West Virginia bituminous fields. In that region we see in actual operation the over-competitive conditions to which the advocates of the 'New Freedom' would have us return under the impression that they offer a panacea for all our ills.

"Under the pressure of an unenlightened capitalistic opinion, the West Virginian courts have rendered decisions—in strict accordance with the principles of the 'New Freedom'—which themselves serve as the most striking object lessons of the need of the widespread application of Progressive principles. In the district where the rioting has occurred the employing operators have endeavored to keep the miners in a state of practical serfage by the use of the company stores. This fact has been recognized and the practice forbidden in most civilized countries; in England, for instance, legislation was passed forbidding this practice more than 70 years ago. The West Virginia Legislature did its duty by passing laws requiring the cash payment of wages, and prohibiting persons and corporations engaged in mining and manufacture from selling any merchandise or supplies from stores to their employes at a greater percentage of profit than to outsiders. These laws were contested in the courts as unconstitutional.

"As a whole the West Virginia court has declared that they were ineffective, as in contravention of the constitution. The court explicitly states that a contract for labor is property, thereby putting the life blood of men, women and children on a level with the commodities they produce.

"In 33 West Virginia 179 and 188, the court explicitly repudiated the notion that the miners are entitled to be paid in cash or can by law be secured such a right, or that the mine owners can be prohibited by law from selling to the laborers at a higher price than to outsiders. The court stated that these laws represented 'unjust interference with private contracts and business,' and that they were an 'insulting attempt to put the laborer under legislative tutelage,' which was 'degrading to his manhood' and 'suppressive of his rights as a citizen of the United States.'

"These opinions put the case of the 'New Freedom' concisely. They say that the laborer has the freedom, or as they phrase it the 'right' to sell his labor as he thinks best, and that any law controlling this right is unconstitutional. Literally and exactly this decision stands on a par with one which in the name of freedom should guarantee the laborer the right to sell himself into slavery. Finally when

STORM ALLEVIATES THE HEAT

Gettysburg, July 2.—A roaring storm swept down out of the Blue Ridge plateau of Gettysburg today bringing needed relief to thousands of veterans in blue and gray who have sweltered for four days in an atmosphere scorching. More than a half hour the rain came pouring down upon sun cracked and wind-swept encampment. It was charged with violent thundering over the ground that Pickett covered in '63. Its salvos of thunder were like the booming of guns of Meade and Lee, but the thermometer dropped with wonderful agility, and the lightning cleared the air of its burden of humidity.

The veterans lashed down their tents and showed they had not forgotten the old days, for not a tent was blown over, so far as reports showed tonight, and not a veteran was injured.

Tonight the veterans were really able to enjoy themselves for the first time since their arrival, although the ground was slippery, the roads a half inch deep in mud.

Military Day.

This was military day at the big tent, but comparatively few veterans appeared to listen to the speech making and to hear the bands playing "Turkey in the Straw", "Old Black Joe," and other well known airs.

Col. Andrew Cowan, of Louisville, acted as presiding officer of the day and told several stories that brought smiles to the lips of his hearers. Col. Cowan wa an officer in a Union battery which played a part in the Gettysburg campaign.

On the third day of the battle, he said, "two of my officers were wounded. I went with them to a hospital and before I left a wounded Confederate officer was brought. 'I wish you would see to it that no reports go out that I have been wounded,' the Confederate said, 'my wife is in a delicate condition and I'm afraid if she heard about it, it might kill her.'

"I went to the doctor in charge and told him the story and he promised to do all he could.

"Twenty-three years later that Union doctor was sitting in his office at Plainfield, N. J., when a boy walked in. 'Doctor,' he said, 'I want to shake your hand. I am going to school over at Princeton and my father told me when I came up here to look you up. He said you saved his life.'

"'Doctor,' he continued, 'I'm the boy'."

Col. Cowan turned to the navy and the Japanese situation.

"We ought to build two battleships for every one laid down by Japan,' he said, and the veterans cheered again and again. "The people on the seacoast cities ought not to be left without protection. We ought to be prepared to demand peace."

Other speakers of the day were Maj. Gen. John R. Brooke, of Pennsylvania; Sergt. John C. Scarborough, of North Carolina, and Lieut. Gov. Burchard, of Rhode Island, representing the armies of the North and the South. Barry Bulkley, of Washington, read Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

One of the most remarkable figures in camp today was that of Gen. Funkhauser, of Virginia, who is 76 years old, but who was vigorous enough in the hot sun to hunt up the headquarters tent of Brig. Gen. Hunter Liggett, and pay his respects. The gray haired old Confederate general delighted the general of the newer army and his subordinate officers with his stories.

Here is a story that wandered into camp today, and although the names are missing, it seems entirely believable:

Two veterans, one in blue and the other in gray, met down town in Gettysburg. They literally fell in one another's arms, and after a tour of the town they walked hand in hand through the streets to a hardware store, bought a hatchet and tramped a mile and a half to the battlefield. They hunted up the bloody angle, where Pickett's charge reached its crest, dug a hole in the ground there and with tears and more embraces, "buried the hatchet."

Thousands Are Leaving.

Thousands of veterans left the camp and Gettysburg today for their homes and thousands more probably will leave tomorrow. The army officers in charge threw a cordon over the roads leading out today, and examined the baggage. Many government blankets supplied for the encampment were discovered and removed.

So many cases have been reported of veterans losing their return railroad tickets and the consequent distress because of the inability to purchase transportation that Governor Tener today notified Gen. Liggett, the United States army officer in charge of the camp, that the State of Pennsylvania will pay the return fare of all veterans who have lost their tickets.

The Bloody Angle.

One of the picturesque events of the celebration is scheduled for tomorrow at the Bloody Angle, when the Philadelphia brigade of the Union army and survivors of Pickett's division, will form on opposite sides of the wall where the charge stopped. They will charge as best they can with the burden of years, but when

THE ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Jessie Woodrow Wilson to Marry Francis Bowes Sayre, of Lancaster, Pa.—Wedding Next November.

Washington, July 2.—The President and Mrs. Wilson announced tonight the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, to Francis Bowes Sayre, of Lancaster, Pa. The wedding is expected to take place next November at the White House. Mr. Sayre is at present an attorney in the office of District Attorney Whitman, of New York.

While close friends of both families have known of the engagement was withheld until today, the first withheld until today, the first anniversary of Mr. Wilson's nomination at the Baltimore convention.

White House officials accompanied the brief announcement with a biography of Mr. Sayre. He is 28 years of age, and after preparing at the Hill School at Pottstown, Pa., and Lawrenceville, N. J., graduated from Williams College in 1909. He was manager of the football team there, valedictorian of his class, and interested in Y. M. C. A. work. He spent two Summers with Dr. Alfred T. Grenfell in his missionary work on the coast of Labrador and studied law at Harvard Law School, where he graduated last year "cum laude".

He has traveled extensively during his vacations, spending last Summer in Alaska and Northern Siberia.

Mr. Sayre comes from a collegiate family. His father was the late Robert Heysham Sayre, for a long time president of the board of trustees of Lehigh University, and builder of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. His mother was Martha Finley Nevin, a daughter of John Williamson Nevin, theologian, and president of Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa. She is descended from Hugh Williamson, of North Carolina, one of the framers of the constitution. She is a sister of Robert J. Nevin, head of the American church of Rome, Italy, and a first cousin of Ethelbert Nevin, the composer.

Miss Wilson is 24 years of age, and was educated at Goucher College, Baltimore, and specialized in political science.

While Mr. Sayre is not known to Washingtonians, he has made several quiet visits to the White House in recent months, and was a frequent visitor at the Wilson home at Princeton, N. J. The announcement was received with keen interest in capital social circles as the wedding starts the Winter season with an important social function. Not since Miss Alice Roosevelt and former Representative Longworth, of Ohio, were married, has there been a wedding at the White House and prior to that occurred the wedding of the Clevelands.

MT. OLIVE POTATO SHIPMENTS.

Average Price Has Not Been Satisfactory—30,000 Barrels Sold.

Mount Olive, N. C., July 2.—Up to the present time about 30,000 barrels of Irish potatoes have been shipped to Northern markets from this point, with about 10,000 barrels still to be dug and shipped. This is a much larger yield than has ever been raised in Mount Olive's territory before, but the average price per barrel has been far from satisfactory. The farmer who was fortunate enough to get his potatoes off early, during the very first of the potato shipping season, got a pretty fair price for same—from $2.50 to $4 per barrel—but for the past two weeks the prices have ranged from $1 to $1.50 per barrel, a portion of that time there being absolutely no market at all for potatoes.

"ST. PAUL, THE MISSIONARY"

Bible and Evangelistic Conference at Junaluska

Asheville, N. C., July 2.—"St. Paul, the Missionary," was the subject of an address by Dr. Camden M. Cobern, of Allegheny College, Pennsylvania, at this afternoon's session of the Bible and Evangelistic Conference at Lake Junaluska, Waynesville. Other speakers were Dr. George R. Stewart, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Professor G. M. Sleeth, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Dr. W. F. Tillett, of Vanderbilt University.

OUTLINES

The engagement of Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson to Francis Bowes Sayre, of Lancaster, Pa., has been announced. The wedding will take place next November.

Yesterday was Military Day at the reunion of Civil War veterans at Gettysburg. Seven veterans were stabbed in a fight at the camp which originated when the name of Lincoln was abused.

Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, withdrew from the Democratic tariff caucus yesterday because that body voted down his amendment to put a graduated income tax on tobacco production.

Governor Sulzer states that the breach of promise suit filed against him by Miss Mignon Hopkins, of Philadelphia, is merely a nefarious scheme formulated by political bosses and conspirators.

That Egyptian methods of baling, sampling and marketing cotton lint may be studied with profit by American cotton producers is the opinion of sub-committee of the American commission appointed to investigate and study the subject.

New York markets: Money on call steady, highest 2 per cent.; lowest 1 3-4; ruling rate 2; last loan 2, closing bid 1 3-4 to 4 per cent. Flour steady. Wheat firm. Corn strong. Turpentine steady. Rosin barely steady. Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 12.45; middling gulf 12.70; sales none.

HOW EGYPT HANDLES HER COTTON CROP

The Baling, Sampling, and Marketing of the Staple

AGRICULTURAL CREDIT SYSTEM

Methods of Foreigners May be Studied With Profit by American Producers, Says Investigating Commission.

Washington, July 2.—Methods of baling, sampling and marketing cotton lint in Egypt may be studied with profit by American cotton producers, both by way of teaching to save waste and by way of exhibiting the excessiv charges of middlemen, is the conclusion reached by J. S. Williams and Clarence Ousley, the sub-committee of the American Commission to investigate and study agricultural credit and co-operation, whose report on their study of the production and marketing of Egyptian cotton has just been published as a Senate document.

Egypt, however, they found, can offer to the United States no instruction whatever in skill, science or other element of economy or efficiency in cotton production, nor does that country constitute any menace of over production.

Summarizing their investigation briefly, they say:

"Egypt, with her 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 bales of cheaply produced but dearly sold cotton admonishes American growers to improve their methods of cultivation and marketing, in order to reduce their cost of production.

"The proprietors of large Egyptian estates, representing 7 1-2 to 10 per cent. of the crop, are in a position to co-operate and render powerful aid in maintaining fair prices for their commodities, and these prices will tend to steady the prices of American cotton if our producers do not commit the folly of producing more than the world will take at profitable values, and if the cotton States will establish a system of State regulated warehouses which will enable the farmers to store their cotton and secure cheap money upon warehouse receipts, whereby they may sell the crop gradually over a period of several months, instead of forcing it upon the market, as they do now, within two or three months."

These proprietors, and the British Egyptian department of Agriculture, promise hearty co-operation in establishing a system of accurate reports of cotton consumption.

Concluding, the sub-committee states there is a vital relation between Egyptian and American cotton production, which should be cultivated in amity and mutuality by either possible official and co-operative endeavor. They stated that the result of their investigation was three-fold, and in each respect the situation is well worth careful consideration.

First, Egypt's cost of production in the ratio to the value of her commodity is much lower than America's.

Secondly, Egypt's output varies but little from year to year and is capable of but slight expansion, and is therefore a more or less fixed factor of great economical potentiality.

Thirdly, An influential and predominating group of large planters are in cordial sympathy with America's purpose to establish a more intelligent system of marketing.

"We have reason to hope that Egypt will join in any effort the Cotton States may initiate to establish an inter-State and international bureau of cotton intelligence for the promotion of more efficient production, and more economical marketing," says the report. "In this connection, we earnestly recommend that the principal cotton States of the Union create the office of cotton commissioner, and that such commissioners, together constitute themselves as a bureau of cotton information with special reference to consumption and the extended use of cotton goods, and that other cotton growing countries be invited to have representation in such bureau to the end that intelligent information may be furnished the producers for their guidance in adjusting supply to demand, and that the demand for our great staple product may be stimulated. We are confident that such a bureau would operate as a practical insurance against either over-production or under-production, and yet prevent abnormally high prices, to the injury and hardship of consumers."

"Egypt's comparatively low cost of production, notwithstanding her antiquated methods of cultivation, her heavy expense of conversion from seed cotton to spinnable lint is a matter of serious concern to America for Egypt is able, under present conditions, to produce her superior quality of cotton, worth now 18 to 20 cents a pound, at about 12 3-4 cents a pound, compared with American cost of 10 to 12 cents a pound, worth now 11 to 12 1-2 cents," they state.

"American cotton growers must face the fact that the Egyptian crop is produced at a cost approximately no greater than American cost, and yet the Egyptian cotton, by reason of superior quality, sells for about six cents a pound more. In other words, a decline of three cents a pound below the current market price would still leave a fair profit to Egyptian output, while such a decline would carry American cotton below the cost of production, and we know from sad experience how difficult it is under present methods and conditions of tenant farming in the United States to adjust supply to demand. Therefore, it behooves American cotton growers to reduce the cost of production by more intense cultivation, by the use and development of varieties of superior staple, and especially by eliminating the waste and graft in American methods of sampling, baling and marketing.

"But while Egypt is somewhat a menace in respect to her low cost of production, we are gratified to be able to report a sympathetic attitude upon the part of representative and influential Egyptian planters, and the British advisory administration of Egypt in respect to all the marketing problems which concern the producers of both countries alike, and especially with respect to securing accurate information concerning cotton consumption."

GOV. SULZER DEFIES BOSSES

Says That Hopkins Breech of Promise Suit Against Him is Nefarious Scheme of Political Conspirators

Gettysburg, Pa., July 2.—Governor Sulzer this afternoon issued an interview in connection with the suit for breach of promise filed against him in Philadelphia yesterday. The interview follows:

"Yes, I read about that Hopkins frame-up in Philadelphia. There is nothing to it I am afraid of. The whole thing looks like a poor conspiracy, and seems to be stale and flshy.

"The fact is the suit of this woman Hopkins is blackmail," went on the Governor, "and more, it is instigated by my political conspirators to discredit me because they cannot use me for their nefarious schemes to loot the State of New York.

"If I were willing to be Murphy's kind of a Governor, no one would have heard of this and other matters he is using about me. That goes without saying. But because I am fighting graft, fighting for good government, and fighting for direct nominations, Mr. Murphy and his hirelings are doing everything in their power to destroy me politically. They have been threatening me ever since I became Governor because I would not be a tool and a proxy Governor.

"I defied them all to do their worst. Their efforts to injure with honest people will be abortive. I shall go forward without fear come what may, I never did a thing in my life of which I am ashamed."

"Suffice it to say that I knew this Hopkins woman years ago. I was a friend of her family in their distress, but I deny emphatically that I ever agreed to marry her; that I ever wronged her; that I ever lived with her, or that I ever held her out to be my wife.

"Miss Hopkins sued me in New York for breach of promise, sometime after I married, about six years ago. She could not sustain her charges, and admitted she brought the suit for ulterior purposes. That case was settled, and my lawyer has a general release from this woman to me. My reason for settling then was on account of the precarious condition of Mrs. Sulzer."

The Secretary's Statement

Albany, N. Y., July 2.—A statement given out today by Governor Sulzer's secretary attributed the breach of promise suit brought against the Governor by Miss Mignon Hopkins, of Philadelphia, to the Governor's political enemies.

"For the past three months," it said, "Governor Sulzer has been charged with the alleged breach of an implied promise to turn the government of New York over to the political bosses, both Republican and Democratic who have been enjoying a carnival of graft.

"Corrupt police captains in New York city threatened with exposure, made their reply by organized assassination. Corrupt bosses in New York State who see their power crumbling and their methods exposed, replied with an organized attempt to assassinate Governor Sulzer's character."

Concluding the statement says the "Governor's onslaught against the corrupt power of invisible government carried on in the interest of graft and special privilege and his refusal to turn over the public service commission to the railroads, has driven the grafters to a state of desperation in which they hope to destroy the Governor by resorts to slander, forgery and scandal."

WOULD BAR "BLOOMER GIRLS"

Lumberton Ministers Protest Against Allowing Game Tomorrow

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., July 2.—A big sensation was sprung here this afternoon when upon request of some of the resident ministers Mayor White called a special meeting of the Town Commissioners at 6 o'clock to take steps to keep the Bloomer Girls' baseball team from playing against the local team here on the Fourth.

The news spread rapidly and the mayor's office was well filled to hear what was going to happen. Rev. C. H. Durham, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. J. Frank Gorrell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, appeared before the board and protested against allowing the game from a moral standpoint, while others protested there was no proof of immorality.

The committee having the Fourth celebration in charge disclaimed having anything to do with the matter. After being in session one and one half hours, the meeting adjourned without doing anything. The members of the meeting seemed to fear the possibilities of having the town involved in a law suit.

CONGREESMAN WEBB SPEAKS

Denounces Mulhall Who Said He Was "Special Interests'" Man

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 2.—Representative E. Yates Webb, of the Seventh North Carolina district, took the floor of the House today and demanded a thorough investigation of the Mulhall charges which include his name as among those Congressmen who look favorably on plans of special interests.

Congressman Webb read a brief statement denouncing Mulhall as a falsifier and reviewed his record. He said he is willing to be judged by his record in Congress, which covers a period of many years. His remarks were heartily cheered by his colleagues.

LOBBY COMMITTEE GETS A NEW THRILL

A Remarkable Story Without Parallel in History Unfolded

UNIQUE WITNESS TESTIFIES

"David Lamar," of New York, the Principal in Remarkable Session, Makes Many Naive Admissions to Investigators

Washington, June 2.—A story of misrepresentation, impersonation of public men, an organized effort to influence Wall Street financiers, probably without parallel in the history of Congressional investigation was unfolded today before the Senate Lobby committee.

A prosperous-looking, self-possessed individual, calling himself David Lamar, of New York, self-described us an "operator of stocks," and admittedly the bearer of several assumed names, was the principal in the remarkable session. With entire abandon, arousing the committee to laughter at times by his naive admissions, he told of his impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall Street operations in his association with Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, in efforts to have Lauterbach retained by the Morgan firm, the Union Pacific and other great interests to head off Congressional activity in Washington.

Used Many Names

He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Riordan. He assumed the guise of Chairman McCombs, of the Democratic National committee, to telephone to Chairman Hilles, of the Republican National committee. Lewis Cass Ledyard, of New York, counsel for the Morgan firm, was one of his attempted victims. Mr. Ledyard came to the witness stand today armed with almost a verbatim account of all the conversations held with Lamar, who had represented himself as Congressman Palmer. As he read the record of the conversations, in themselves unusual in their tones, Lamar sitting nearby laughed and nodded, saying "that's right," and slapping his leg with apparent enjoyment.

The purpose of his impersonations, Lamar contended, was to secure reinstatement for his friend Lauterbach, in the good graces of the Morgan firm. Members of the committee tonight demanded that Lamar remain in Washington for re-appearance tomorrow. Edward Lauterbach who recently testified before the committee, was recalled from New York by telegraph tonight, and Henry B. Martin, a local man who has figured as head of the "anti-trust league," also was subpoenaed to appear.

Lamar declared he prepared the resolution for the Stanley investigation of the steel trust; that it was given to Martin, who gave it to Congressman Stanley. Subsequently, he said, it was introduced in the House of Representatives by Mr. Stanley with but a few "technical changes" from its original form.

Denies Attempt at Extorting

Lamar denied that there had been any attempt at extorting money from any of the New York financial men. The story evolved during the day, mainly through the Ledyard testimony, indicated that the latter had been to various members of the Morgan firm to tell them of the "steel trust" investigation resolution, which Lamar had prepared; but that none of the Morgan firm members would pay any attention to the matter, or make any effort to stop it.

Lamar paved the way for Lauterbach to call upon Ledyard, according to testimony given by Ledyard, and corroborated by Lamar. In an interview February 8th, 1913, between Ledyard and Lauterbach, the latter declared he came direct from Senator Stone, who represented Speaker Clark, and that he had a proposal to make the Morgan interests for the heading off of Congressional activity against the United States Steel Corporation.

Whole Thing a Farce

Senator Stone took the stand before Ledyard had finished, and denounced the whole thing as a "malicious fabrication," and a "common lie." Members of the Senate committee agreed in the belief that it was a fabrication, and Lamar laughingly clinched the matter by breaking in and admitting there was no truth in the allegations. He admitted that he had prepared the outline of the conditions that should be submitted to the steel corporation attorney, but he could give no explanation of his purpose except that the whole thing was a farce.

The story of how Ledyard had kept Lamar on the teulephone time after time until he could locate the real Congressman Palmer in Washington; how he had once succeeded in getting Palmer over the long distance telephone when the bogus "Palmer" was on another 'phone; and how he had finally traced the impersonator to a telephone in Lamar's apartment on Riverside Drive, held the committee and spectators almost dumfounded for more than an hour.

Telephone Impersonator

Paul C. Cravath, one of the attorneys for the Union Pacific and Maxwell Evarts, counsel for the Southern Pacific, testified briefly as to their experiences with the telephone impersonator. During his testimony early in the day, Lamar interjected an attack upon the Union Pacific, claiming there had been a falsification in the books of the company in 1901, by which about $80,000,000 had disappeared from its surplus.

Mr. Cravath immediately denied this, terming Lamar a "liar," a characterization which the committee insisted should be withdrawn. Cravath declared the attack had been expected for

Nationals Won From Boston Again —Athletics Take Third Straight —Tigers Won—Naps Split Double-header

The Philadelphia Athletics, whose mad runaway with the American League pennant race has lost interest for the majority of followers of the game, took their third straight game from the lowly Highlanders yesterday at New York.

Big Chief Bender was driven to cover in the ninth inning, when the locals secured three runs off his delivery, but Bush came to the rescue and easily retired the side without further damage.

The Athletics have now completed half their pennant race, having won their 50th game yesterday. It is conceded that 100 games in the win column will win the pennant in any season.

Boehling chalked up his seventh consecutive victory for the Washington Senators yesterday, defeating the Boston Red Sox five to nothing. Today Walter Johnson will in all probability be Griffith's choice on the mound.

The Senators go back up to third place by the small margin of one point, the Chicago White Sox having dropped yesterday's game to Detroit.

The Detroit Tigers indulged in a batfest in the fourth inning of yesterday's game with the White Sox, eleven men going to the swatting station in this inning and seven runs being scored as a consequence, winning the game by the score of seven to five.

The Cleveland Naps broke even on a double-header with the St. Louis Browns, losing the first game but winning the second session.

Bender Fell Down

New York, July 2.—The Athletics won their third straight game against New York 8 to 5. Both teams hit hard. In the ninth New York drove Bender from the box, getting three runs. Bush then quickly retired the side.

LAURINBURG-RAEFORD GAME

Teams Will Play at Fayetteville Tomorrow—Both Fine Teams

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., July 2.—Laurinburg and Raeford meet at Fayetteville Friday the Fourth of July, to play a game that will be watched with interest by a good many, since both teams are considered among the best in this part of the State. Laurinburg's game with Hamlet Tuesday was very exciting, Laurinburg winning 2 to 1. Both teams did good work but the Hamlet boys were up against too much. Morrow pitched a good game for them, fanning 10 men and allowing seven hits. Hamlet had six and Laurinburg four errors to their credit. McNeill and James officiated for Laurinburg and Morrow and Fletcher for Hamlet.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT

Reported Sale of W., B. & S. Railroad to A. C. L. Denied

The Star received a long distance telephone message last night from Southport stating that word had been received there during the evening that the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern Railroad, which operates trains from Wilmington to Southport, was sold yesterday to either the Atlantic Coast Line or C. & O. The report created great interest in Southport. Information was sought from The Star as to whether there was any foundation for the rumor. Mr. M. J. Corbett, of this city, president of the W., B. & S., was called up at his cottage on Wrightsville Beach, told of the report circulated in Southport and asked if it were true that the property had been sold. He said that that was the first he had heard of the matter and that there was absolutely nothing in the report.

MAXTON-ROWLAND GAME.

Featured by Good Clean Playing Throughout.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., July 2.—In a game featured by good pitching and good ball playing throughout Maxton and Rowland struggled through 13 innings on the local grounds Monday afternoon. There was no scoring until the seventh, when a base on balls and two hits by Rowland netted two runs. In the last half of the same inning two 2-bag hits by Williams and Barnes for Maxton tied the score, Smith having gained first on error. Again, in the ninth, each team scored two and at this juncture Rowland threatened to leave the field on account of the umpiring, which had been unsatisfactory to both sides. There was no change of umpires, however, and the game continued through the 13th inning, when, after a hit by Carter, a sacrifice by Stone, a base on balls to Smith, a two-bagger by Hasty, Maxton scored and the game ended 6 to 4 for Maxton. Poor umpiring was responsible for some unpleasantness, but at the finish there was a general good feeling among the players and fans. Batteries for Maxton, Huntley and Hasty; for Rowland, Russell and Correll; time 2:45.

BUCK O'BRIEN SOLD TO CHICAGO WHITE SOX

Boston, July 2.—Thomas J. (Buck) O'Brien, one of the Boston American League pitchers, was sold today to the Chicago White Sox.

The trade was a cash transaction, and although no figures have been given out, it is guessed that it took quite a decent price to induce Jake Stahl to part with Buck, who has won many a game for the Red Sox.

WITH THE MOVIES

Fourth of July Eve will be celebrated in great style today at the Grand, the fun being headed by that prince of all comedy pictures, "Professor William Nutt," which is the best thing the Edison company has ever manufactured. Two prime favorites, clever Dan Mason and charming Madeline Adair, will make mirth flow in large streams. Kalem offers "A Sawmill Hazard," which tells a vivid, thrilling story. It is something entirely new. "Counsellor Bobby" is also a star today and it is one of the cleverest. The Grand is certainly the cool spot these days, as well as being the theatre of the diminutive price of admission, 5 cents, any and all times.

The Bijou Today

John Bunny, the clever, fat comedian, who has made millions laugh, will jump back into the limelight at the popular Bijou today in "Bunny and the Bunny Hug." It is a scream from start to finish. The Vitagraph has an especially fine photoplay in today's bill, "Cinders," a film that is greatly in demand, telling of "how the other half lives." "At Bear Track Gulch" is a powerful Edison that will stir the blood. It is a Western story, with a young Eastern school teacher as the star character. The Bijou is ever comfortable and the price of admission always tiny—5 cents.

M'GRAW MEN INCREASE LEAD

Made It Three Straight From Phillies Yesterday—Dodgers Took Final. Cubs Made Clean Sweep. Cardinals Winners.

The Giants made it three straights over the erstwhile fast flying Phillies by taking yesterday's contention by an 8 to 4 score.

That famous game winning team, Matty and Meyers, performed at the principle stands, and acquitted themselves in their usual style, although Mathewson issued 13 safe hit to the Phillie batters. The Giants lead the league by a margin of two and a half games, with the final game of the series with the Phillies to be played today.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, after dropping three straights, came back and walloped the Boston Braves in the final battle. The Braves went to pieces in the third inning, allowing Brooklyn to leak nine tallies across the plate on three hits.

The Chicago Cubs made a clean sweep of the series with Pittsburg, taking yesterday's game 6 to 4. Heinie Zimmerman collected a bonus of $100 offered him by a fan if he would refrain from butting in and getting chased by the umpire for a period of two weeks. Yesterday was the final day for him to remain on good behavior to collect, and he may be expected to break into print again today.

Sins of commission by the Cincinnati Reds helped the St. Louis Cardinals to cop yesterday's game, score 6 to 4.

The Vaudeville Team Performed.

Philadelphia, July 2.—New York won its third straight game here this afternoon from Philadelphia, the score being 8 to 4. Both teams hit the ball hard. The visitors were seldom in danger of losing. They drove Chalmers off the rubber in three innings. Mathewson was touched up for 13 hits.

Brooklyn Came Back.

Brooklyn, July 2.—Brooklyn overwhelmed Boston today 15 to 3. The visitors went to pieces in the third inning, allowing Brooklyn to score nine runs off three hits. Tyler, Noyes and Hess tried to stem the tide, but were ineffective. Strand, a new pitcher, checked the heavy scoring.

Heinie Collects a Debt.

Chicago, July 2.—Chicago made a clean sweep of the series with Pittsburg today by winning the final game of the series 6 to 4. Wilson's two home runs and Hyatt's homer gave the visitors their four scores.

Today was Zimmerman's last day to remain on his good behavior in order to receive the other half of a $100 bill, presented to him by a "fan" if he should refrain from being chased by the umpire for two weeks.

Errors Boost Cardinals.

Cincinnati, July 2.—Errors by Cincinnati enabled St. Louis to win the third game of the series 6 to 4. Both Burke and Harter were knocked out of the box. Perritt pitched good ball, but was taken out to allow Whitted to bat for him.

REPAIRS AT POSTOFFICE

Replacing of Tiling and Other Improvements Begun Yesterday

Workmen were busy yesterday at the postoffice building taking up defective tiling in the flooring, and making repairs to the roof and walls. While there is great need for increased room for the postoffice employes Postmaster Green stated yesterday that this could not be undertaken at the present time. It is hoped that later there will be the necessary funds provided for securing a re-arrangement so that the postoffice force will not be so crowded in their work.

The work of the postoffice department has been greatly increased since the introduction of the parcel post feature. There has been no provision made by Congress for employing additional help and the increased amount of work has to be taken care of by the same force which formerly had only to attend to the sending of letters and printed matter. It is likely that Congress will soon make additional appropriations for securing other employes to look after the parcel post business.

A public-spirited citizen yesterday asked Postmaster Green to extend the time for closing the mail matter for the 6:45 northbound train from 6 P. M. to 6:15 P. M., thus giving the business men an additional 15 minutes so that those who close at 6 P. M. will have time after closing to get their mail off. Mr. Green was unable to do this as it is not possible with the present force to get the mail ready unless the last minute for mailing is fixed at 6 o'clock.

If those who send off large quantities of mail on the northbound evening train would place the mail in the office during the day as it is gotten ready for mailing it would be possible to do this, Mr. Green states, but the plan usually followed is to keep all the mail until the last minute before it is placed in the postoffice. Frequently Mr. Green has to assist the clerical force in getting the mail ready in order that it may be gotten to the station in time for the train.

The postoffice being located some distance from the station it is necessary for it to leave the postoffice 10 or 15 minutes before the time for the train to leave. This only leaves a half hour for routing it, and if the time for mailing was extended to 6:15 P. M. there would only be 15 minutes in which to work the mail. With the present force it is impossible to get the mail ready in that time.

M'LAUGHLIN DEFEATS DOUST

American Lawn Tennis Champion Wins Over Australian in Singles —Will Now Challenge New Zealand Tittleholder

Wimbledon, England, July 2.—Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, American lawn tennis champion, by defeating Stanley N. Doust, Australian Davis cup captain, in the final round of the all-England lawn tennis singles championship tournament today, won the right to challenge A. F. Wilding, of New Zealand, the titleholder. The match will be played here on Friday. McLoughlin beat Doust three straight sets.

The American had it much his own way throughout the match with his "cannon shot" service. McLoughlin won the first game to love, with four consecutive services, Doust being unable to attempt any return. The Australian then neutralized with his service which McLoughlin found too soft for his likening. By keeping near the net, the American took the next three games. The Australian had little chance against McLoughlin's placing and hard hitting.

In the second set, Doust won the first and third games by love scores, and established a lead of three to two but the was unable to maintain it against his opponent's slashing service.

Doust took the first game of the third set, and then won on McLoughlin's service for the first time in the second game, which was fiercely contested, duece being called three times. The Australian also took the third game to love but McLoughlin, by wonderful mid-court kills, won three games in succession. Doust made it a duece set but McLoughlin took the the next two games.

McLoughlin already has faced Wilding, who has held the all-American title since 1910. In 1909 McLoughlin and M. H. Long, of California, representing the United States in Australia in the challenger round of the Davis cup matches, met N. E. Brooks and Wilding in singles and doubles. Wilding defeated McLoughlin in the singles and Brooks and Wilding beat the Californians in the doubles in fiercely contested sets.

The English team to defend the Dwight E. Davis international lawn tennis trophy is to be composed of J. C. Parke, H. Roper Barrett, C. P. Dixon and A. W. Gore.

The committee of the Lawn Tennis Association made the selection set this afternoon.

GOVERNOR CRAIG RETURNS

Will be in Office Saturday Morning After Month's Rest—Selma Wants Better Station Facilities—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 2.—A note from Governor Craig to Private Secretary J. P. Kerr is to the effect that he will reach Raleigh Friday evening and will be in the executive office Saturday morning. He writes that he feels very much improved in health as a result of his rest in the mountains.

Pardons are granted to Mitch Lee from two years and six months sentence in Transylvania county for house breaking, and for Columbus Jones, Edgecombe county, from one year sentence for abandoning his wife. Mitch Lee is pardoned on recommendation of Jno. G. Capers, formerly United States commissioner of Internal Revenue, whose Summer home at Cedar Mountain, the prisoner entered and stole a quantity of things. Mr. Capers wrote the Governor that the pardon is asked on account of the prisoner being needed to take care of his wife and three children. He felt, however, that the "Summer residences" in the Cedar Mountain section need some special attention. Columbus Jones is pardoned on condition that he live with and care for the abandoned woman.

A petition was filed with the Corporation Commission today by the citizens of Selma for a new and more adequate passenger station to be provided by the Atlantic Coast Line and the Southern Railroad, and for better freight depot accommodations.

The petition sets out that the passenger station accommodations are entirely inadequate. The commission is taking the matter up with the railroads and there will be a date named for a hearing in the matter.

State Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young has received from Deputy Commissioner F. M. Jordan report on the recent Iredell county fires to the effect that he finds that the fires were started by Harvey Murdock, a 13-year-old boy, who is weak physically and mentally, and is declared to have pyromania—a craze for starting fires. The lad has confessed to the starting of the fires which resulted quite seriously in the burning of several buildings and large quantities of lumber.

With the inauguration of the regular train service between Raleigh and Mt. Gilead, on the Raleigh, Charlotte & Southern division of the Norfolk Southern Railroad, Raleigh becomes division headquarters for the Raleigh-Charlotte division, all of which is to be open for train service early n the Fall.

L. A. Boyd is division superintendent and his headquarters has just been moved from Biscoe. The first service train over the new section of the division, Raleigh to Mt. Gilead, came into Raleigh at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning with a goodly crowd and with a number of the Norfolk Southern officials, including Vice President E. C. Duncan and General Superintendent Witt. The run, Mr. Gilead to Raleigh, is 105 miles and opens up a splendid country and will be extended toward Charlotte as rapidly as possible. Then there will follow as soon as the line is completed a double daily service between Norfolk and Charlotte, via Raleigh.

The North Carolina Association of Postoffice Clerks and Letter Carriers will be in session in Raleigh July 4th and 5th, and a very attractive programme is prepared. The visitors will be welcomed by Mayor James I. Johnson and the responses will be by A. M. L. Garner and J. B. Summerrow, both of Charlotte. There will be an address by State Treasurer B. R. Lacy.

The news of the serious illness of Hon. R. A. Doughton, who has typhoid fever at his home in Sparta, Alleghany county, is most distressing to his many friends and associate State officials here. Mr. Doughton is recognized as easily the ablest and most conservative member of the present General Assembly. He is a member of the special legislative commission on constitutional amendments and it is a source of much disappointment that the present special meeting of the constitutional amendment commission now in progress at Morehead is deprived of his presence and influence.

The June Bulletin of the North Carolina Board of Health is devoted principally to the presentation of advantages that come from "whole time county health officers," the insistence being that the health conditions of those counties employing efficient superintendents of health show very marked improvement and that the additional expense is justified many times over. Considerable space is devoted to the present status of medical knowledge as to typhoid fever and a unique conception of "Mutt and Jeff as typhoid germs."

KINSTON NEWS NOTES.

Risky But Successful Boat Trip—Case of Smallpox.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., July 2.—Capt. A. L. C. Hill, W. E. Perrott and Mr. Reavis have returned here from a trip in an 18-foot rowboat down Neuse river, through Pamlico Sound, the Inland Waterway and Core Sound to Morehead City. It required just 26 hours of actual running time to make the journey, a distance of 102 miles. The party encountered a severe thunder storm while en route, but weathered it without mishap. Otherwise the trip, although dangerous, was uneventful. Capt. Hill, an amateur distance walker of note, was the originator of the voyage, and he acted as the pilot of the tiny craft.

Richard Weatherington, a colored porter on an afternoon Norfolk Southern passenger train, became ill with smallpox while making the run from Goldsboro to Beaufort, and upon arriving at Newbern was relieved from duty and sent to a sanitarium, where his case was diagnosed. Weatherington had been riding in a chair car, the passengers unconscious of the nature of his malady. The officials of the railroad were notified by the health authorities to discontinue the use of the car until it was fumigated.

The band of the Second North Carolina Infantry, which goes to Camp Glenn next week for the annual instruction period and rifle practice, will be the largest ever seen at a militia encampment in North Carolina. The band is stationed here. It will have between 35 and 40 musicians including those detailed to it from companies, and claims to be superior as a service band to the others in the State. Every member is a native North Carolinian with one exception, a man who was born in Beirut.

INTERESTING JUNE WEDDINGS.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Tabor, N. C., July 1.—There was a beautiful marriage solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Fussell, when Miss Cara Lea was united in marriage to Mr. M. C. Harper on the afternoon of the 25th by Rev. R. L. Beasley, pastor of the Methodist church.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with ferns and jessamines. The bride was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Fussell, Miss Daisy Moore, of Rose Hill, and Mr. Ralph Pridgen, of Tabor. Little Margaret Fussell carried the ring in the heart of a jessamine.

The bride and groom walked down the path bordered with ferns and jessamines to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, rendered by Miss Pearl Purvis, and plighted their vows under a bower of ferns and jessamines.

The bride wore a lovely robe of white charmeuse satin with crystal trimmings and carried a bouquet of ferns and jessamines.

The bride was formerly of Virginia, and a daughter of the late Mr. N. P. Lea, of Boydton, and is a sister of Mrs. D. C. Fussell. She is a popular and lovable young lady. Mr. Harper is one of Tabor's finest young business men.

After the ceremony the couple left on the 4:30 train for Washington, Baltimore, New York, Niagara Falls and other Northern cities. They will be at home in Tabor after July 10th.

Stedman, N. C., June 30.—Wednesday afternoon, the 25th at the home of Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Baker, Miss Alma Maie, their daughter, became the bride of Mr. Cecil Closs Culbreth. As the Wedding March from Wagner was skilfully rendered by Miss Mary Ella Bullard, the bride and groom entered the parlor which had been tastefully decorated in white and green, attended by Miss Addie Williams with Mr. W. B. Baker, and Miss Gertrude Maxwell with Mr. B. T. Williams. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Lee Fox, during which the sweet and plaintive melodies of Traumer's gently flowed from the piano. The party left the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Munsey Culbreth, of Greensboro, and Miss Gertrude Maxwell, of St. Pauls. The bride is one of Stedman's most charming young ladies and is an accomplished young woman. The groom is a mail clerk on the A. & Y. division of the A. C. L. The friends of both, and they are many, wish for the couple all that is happy. They left for Wrightsville Beach and points North, and will be at home in Mount Airy after July 5th.

CROP DAMAGE IN DURHAM.

Heavy Rains and Storms Play Havoc in Some Parts of County.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., July 2.—Reports are coming in telling of considerable destruction of crops throughout this section. A few weeks ago the farmers throughout the country were praying for rain lest the tobacco, cotton and corn, which were then so promising, should be blighted. Last week the farmers' prayers were answered and rain fell in abundance; in fact, so much rain fell that the corn, especially in the low grounds, was pratically ruined, and the tobacco and cotton damaged considerably. Besides this damage to the crops, the lightning added to the havoc. Several barns throughout the county were burned, having been struck by lightning, and a number of farm animals were killed by the same destructive force. Last Friday two calves on Mr. John Sprunt Hill's farm near the city, two fine calves, were killed by lightning. The feed and stock barns of Mr. Tilley, living near Cole's Mill, were burned last week, and all his feed and a number of cows were destroyed. Others throughout the county report considerable losses due to the rain and the lightning.

ECZEMA 25 YEARS FACE A MASS OF IT

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 20, 1912.—"I had eczema for the last twenty-five years, and have been afflicted so badly that for weeks I could not go outside the door. My face was one mass of pimples, and not only the looks of it but the itching and burning pains I experienced were just dreadful. I lost a great deal of sleep and had to keep dampened cloths on my face all night to relieve the pain. I had become disgusted with trying different things.

"One day I made up my mind to try Resinol, and after using one jar of Resinol Ointment, and one cake of Resinol Soap, I saw the difference, and now my face is as clear as anybody's, and I certainly don't need to be ashamed to go out. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment cured me of one of the worst cases of eczema, I guess, that anybody ever saw." (Signed) Mrs. C. Hellmuth, 5611 Appletree Street.

Try Resinol yourself and see how quickly the itching stops and stubborn eruptions disappear. Resinol Ointment and Soap are sold by all druggists. For free trial, write to Dept. 19-M, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

THE PUBLIC SALE OF TIMBER

Heretofore Ordered to Take Place on June 24th Has Been Continued Until July 24th, as Stated Below:

By virtue of authority vested in us by resolutions of the stockholders and also Board of Directors of the Dill-Cramer-Truitt Corporation, we shall offer for sale at public auction on Thursday, July 24th, 1913, in front of the post office in Suffolk, Va., at 12 o'clock, noon, all the standing pine, cypress and other timber holdings of said company on 20,000 acres, more or less, of land in Onslow and Pender counties, in North Carolina, and fully described in deeds to said company, duly registered in the office of the Register of Deeds for said counties, a list of which said deeds may be had upon application to the undersigned.

The timber is conveniently located for shipment by either the Atlantic Coast Line R. R. or Norfolk Southern R. R.

At said sale no bid shall be accepted by the auctioneer unless the bidder deposit with the auctioneer a certified check on some reputable bank for the sum of $25,000.00, said check to be returned to the bidder if he should fail to become the purchaser of the property; otherwise, to be used as a credit on the purchase price.

Terms: One-third cash, one-third in six months, and one-third (the balance) in twelve months, with interest from date of sale and to be secured by deed of trust on the property, or other satisfactory security.

Any party or parties desiring more detailed information in reference to said timber can secure the same upon application of the officers of the company.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable, and all communications should be addressed to,

Thursday, July 3, 1913.

Remember the Fourth of July tomorrow. Take care of yourself and help to make it sane.

There is plenty of room at the top but those who get there have to get out of the way for somebody who comes later by a near cut.

Nobody but father knows what kind of a time he is having at home with his friends while everybody is off on what they think is a vacation.

Some people are satisfied if they can get their money's worth, but most of the people want something for nothing or just a little more than they pay for.

Some men flit into the limelight for two or three days and then fall down on the job like a moth which mistakes a lighted candle for its affinity. Who said anything about McNab?

Hurrah for Mr. Johnsing! The Canadian government will send a detective with him as far as Quebec as a guard of honor to escort him out of the country.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

A woman' idea of a pleasant time at the seaside is that she is having it when she won't even let her husband leave her side long enough to bring her a glass of water with ice on the side.

Some people enjoy surf bathing, fishing and yachting at seaside resorts, but others refuse to recognize the ocean unless they can see a few "schooners" coming across the bar on a hot, dry day.

Some people never get cold feet. Drummers are showing their Fall samples, colleges are contemplating Autumn football, the fashion plates for Fall styles are being made ready, and the magazines are laying plans for their Christmas numbers.

Our idea of an optimist is that one of them is the fellow who has figured up that, in spite of the hot wave, June was a remarkably cold month on an average. But look at the freakish range in temperature from abnormal cold during the first part of the month to abnormal heat at the close. Anyhow, farewell June. Oh, you, nothing!

According to the Raleigh Times, all the railroads running into Raleigh have such convenient schedules that the people within a radius of 75 miles of Raleigh can visit the capital city, do their shopping and return home the same day. That means that the population of 5,625 square miles of trade territory is within easy reach of their trade center. No one can doubt that such schedules are as much to the advantage of the railroads as they are to Raleigh.

It is a fine, broad-minded thing to be non-partisan and to stand up for an office-holder who is efficient, even if he does belong to the other political party; but human nature will have to be made over before that sort of thing will work smoothly. President Wilson might as well pick out his good Democrats and ask the surviving Republican officers to get out of those swivel chairs. They'll do things to him if they get the chance and their continued incumbency will be a thorn in the hide of the donkey that will make him morose and unwilling to work in harness.

The building of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railway, connecting the Norfolk & Western and Atlantic Coast Line railways, is rapidly making Florence, S. C., one of the greatest transfer stations in the South. All of the freight passes through Winston-Salem. The Florence Daily Times has the following interesting story relative to growth of the freight business at that point: "It has been persistently reported from several sources that the Atlantic Coast Line is going to electrify its terminals in Florence and in several other large transfer yards. The Florence terminals are rapidly growing to be the largest that the Coast Line has. With the development of the package business from the West to the Atlantic coast the business here is growing apace, with prospects of still greater growth."—Winston-Salem Journal.

THE PASSING VETERAN

The Nation, North and South, prides itself on the valor and heroism of the men who fought the fiercest battles in the history of the world. We stand uncovered in the presence of the man, whether he wore the Gray or whether he wore the Blue, when we conjure with the thought that he was in line in the midst of a storm of shells and a perfect boesom of destruction created by volley after volley of whistling, singing, murderous bullets, with swaths cut everywhere by grapeshot that mowed down men and trees with equal fury. A profound sense of admiration takes possession of us when we contemplate the sublime heroism and bravery that would make a man stand in line or go forward at command into the very jaws of death.

Fancy the terror of screeching, hissing, plunging shot and shells flying overhead, falling thick and exploding in the ranks of men who offered themselves as a living sacrifice to the god of battes. Picture in your mind a rain of death-dealing missiles, taking their toll of life and limb and blood and pain and agony. The man whose self-possession made him grim and gallant in a moment when all the chances of living to tell the tale were against him, is the noblest of God's creations. What can be said of the hundreds of thousands who went down to death in the roar and smoke of battle! What can be said of those who all but met death, yet escaped with maimed bodies, perchance legless, or armless, or shot through the body!

There is no wonder that the Nation joined at Gettysburg this week in venerating the last of the Blue and Gray veterans who are the survivors of a titanic contest in which they had offered themselves as a sacrifice for their country and their loved ones, as they saw their duty from the angle from which they viewed the events of 1861-1865. How glorious it is that old foes mingled their tears at Gettysburg, clasped hands, and walked arm and arm over the field where they were once engaged in a death grapple. The age was red with their deeds. History glows with their achievements. Father Time has softened animosities that once glowed as if from the throat of a volcano. The Dove of Peace now flits gently over the scene distributing the laurels without regard to whether the heroes once followed the Stars and Stripes or the Stars and Bars. We are rejoiced that we are even an humble unit in a Nation of men with daring and bravery in war and generosity and forgiveness when the roar of battle has ceased and white-winged peace hovers over all alike in a common fold. We are glad we live in an age when we can witness this final triumph of American manhood. The record of the veterans, the gloriousness of his history they wrote in blood, the fame they wrought, and the fraternal spirit in their breasts is a united people's magnificent heritage—a Nation's imperishable glory.

A generous Nation lays its tribute at the feet of the old soldiers who wore the Blue. They are bountifully helped by pensions and we would despise a country that did not stand with its last dollar for the care of the men who risked their lives, suffered privations, and stood in the breech when their country needed men and demanded their lives in its defense and for its perpetuity. We have never begrudged a dollar that a worthy Federal veteran needed. Some of them could not be paid too much for a service that is without price. However, as we turn away from the Blue to the Gray, we see heroes equally entitled to the veneration and care of the South—not of the Nation, so far as pensions go, for that would be an impossible precedent and humiliating to the greatest soldiers that ever trod the face of the earth.

We ought to take care of the matchless veterans who followed Lee and Jackson and the South's scores of war geniuses who have made us proud of Southern prowess and manhood. When we see a Confederate veteran who was in the list of war sacrifices we behold a soldier peerless in all the world's history. If Napoleon's "Old Guard" could be reincarnated in all their deathless glory as fighters, we could but bestow upon them the sincerest admiration, but to their embodied spirits we could point with welling pride and devout admiration to the living heroes who stood with Lee and the host who made the South's war fame as imperishable as Time itself. If we could live down and through hoary ages we would yet hear the narrative of Lee and his dauntless Southern armies.

So! But what are we doing for the Gray remnant, that, with faltering step and decrepit frame, is marching to a fast-approaching eternity? We ought to make the sacrifice of our lives in these days that they have faced about for their graves. We ought to relieve their wants and as much of their privations and sufferings as possible. If we do not do it, our glory in their deathless record and the Southern fame they made is a mockery! Our niggardliness towards a dying remnant of Lee's soldiers is a shame on us!

A few days ago on Front street we saw a tottering old man gazing into a shop window. His right arm was off near the shoulder. He left it at Gettysburg and dyed that world-famous battlefield with the blood of his youth. He faced death in the terrific assaults of the Gray lines on the entrenched hosts of Blue, but in the thickest of the charge that North Carolina loves to boast of the god of battles spared his life but took his useful right arm as toll. How has he fared during all these years of struggle to keep soul and body together? We can imagine, since he had but his left arm to make the fight for bread, while most of us had two arms and youth to get the best of the contest.

Years after the war, we were on a famous battlefield and saw the frames of twenty soldiers ploughed up by a farmer and his husbandmen. Only the bones were there, but with each there was a message from the dead. Inside their mouldering cartridge boxes, still buckled around their frames, were slips of paper on which was written their names, company and regiment, with perhaps a line or two for the loved ones at home. All were from Ohio and all belonged to the same company, showing that it was fairly decimated at one spot on the bloody field just outside of Atlanta.

The strife was over with them these many years ago, but it is the survivors, maimed and old and gray, who have continued to fight life's battles against remorseless time and all the odds that luck has hurled against them while their heads have grown gray and their pace has faltered in the fight to live till the hand on the dial of life stops dead.

WELL, WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THAT!

The biggest endorsement of the Maxwell proposition for an independent steamship line as the most effectual remedy for freight rate discrimination in North Carolina, comes from the Inter-State Commerce Commission. Eye-openers seem to be coming along fast, but here is one sent from Wilson, under date of July 1st by the correspondent of the Raleigh Times:

"Editor John D. Gold, of the Wilson Times, adds another chapter to the freight rate discussion. Mr. Gold has filed a complaint with the Inter-State Commerce Commission in which he charged unjust freight rates on paper shipped to the P. D. Gold Publishing Company. In his complaint Mr. Gold alleged the rate charged him to be 18 cents per hundred pounds from Hagerstown, Md., to Richmond, and 25 cents per hundred pounds from Richmond, Va., to Wilson and the distance in the latter case only about one-third of the distance. In acknowledging the receipt of his complaint, the chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission tells Mr. Gold that the rate referred to is involved in the hearings which have been held up pending settlement and then suggests to Mr. Gold that he read the address delivered by Mr. Maxwell at Wilmington, a copy of which is enclosed to Mr. Gold by the Inter-State Commerce Commission."

The advocates and friends of just freight rates for North Carolina ought now to be able to recognize the most potential factor in bringing about a solution of the freight rate problem. It is water competition in the carrying of freights. That was curiously but pointedly emphasized by the chairman of the Inter-State Commerce Commission when he enclosed a copy of the Maxwell address for the benefit of Editor Gold.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission knows what affects rates more than legislation. It is water transportation, with its low rate for carriage. It is efficient steamship service, whether it is by one or more independent lines, or whether it is by two or more or a dozen established steamship companies.

The main thing is water transportation and the necessary steamship service, just as The Star has declared from the beginning of the fight of North Carolina against such ruinous rates as are noted in Editor Gold's complaint. With the highest transportation authority in the land putting its stamp of approval on water transportation as the crux of the transportation question, it is time for the people of North Carolina to know that what they have needed all along is a deep water port for North Carolina.

Wilmington and Southport do not ask the people of North Carolina to make a deep water port of the Cape Fear ocean gateway. They ask that the people of the State simply co-operate in securing such a port for North Carolina. If the opportunity were at Point Lookout or Swansboro, it would be all the same, but as it requires but little to make the Cape Fear gateway a deep water port, there should be no thought of any other port. Get one port first, and get a dozen afterwards if possible.

Deep water by itself does not make a rate basing port. Deep water is merely the means of getting steamship service of ample tonnage. Deep water, steamship service and railroad facilities, constituting the facilities for handling traffic, is the solution of the rate problem. Necessarily, there has to be something for the ships and railroads to haul, but North Carolina factories and productive resources would furnish the ships with cargoes, if the products were shipped to the ocean outlet at Wilmington and Southport.

CURRENT COMMENT.

At $6.64 an acre, it strikes us the government is buying Appalachian Forest Reserve land at a bargain. But it is not buying this land for the purpose of timber destruction. It will be worth thousands of dollars an acre to hold the forests.—Charlotte Observer.

The first train over the Raleigh-Charlotte line of the Norfolk Southern was run today from Raleigh to Mt. Gilead and our information is that in October or November the trip can be completed to Charlotte. This indicates how speedily the officials are trying to get into Charlotte which is nothing more than natural.—Charlotte Chronicle, July 1.

During the fiscal year which ended with yesterday the foreign trade of this country for the first time pushed up above the $4,000,000,000 mark. The total was a quarter of a billion over the mark. Exports increased 72 per cent. in the last 10 years and imports nearly 76 per cent. The former exceeded the latter during the year by $750,000,000. This country hasn't the largest foreign trade either in the aggregate or per capita, but the big balance of trade in its favor shows what a world market it is. With the opening of the Panama canal both imports and exports should show an even faster rate of increase.—Savannah News, July 1.

HOLIDAY AT BURGAW

Fourth Will be Day of Quiet Rest—Confederate Monument Soon

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., July 2.—Business will be suspended here the Fourth. There is nothing on foot in the way of a celebration but all will take a plain holiday.

Mr. D. J. Farrior, Jr., is planning a residence on Fremont street, west of the railroad.

The Daughters of the Confederacy met Monday for the purpose of selecting the location for the monument on the square. Two locations were discussed, one in front of the Court House, in the center of the walk, but as this would call for cutting down several fine trees, it was abandoned and the location just south of the building, in a vacant place, was selected. The monument should be here soon.

Mr. John W. Overstreet left for Georgetown, S. C., yesterday.——Mrs. Gilliam, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. McNeal, left today for her home in Virginia.——Miss Lina Ivey has returned to her home in Lenoir.——The friends of Dr. Phillip E. Lucas, recently granted license to practice, will learn with interest that he will spend the Summer with his mother near Currie.

The Commissioners and board of education will be in session Monday.

FOUND ANCIENT DEED.

Paper Signed by His Majesty, George the Third, Discovered.

Kinston, N. C., July 2.—Mrs. Simeon Wooten, of LaGrange, while looking over the effects of her late husband, a prominent citizen who died recently, discovered an ancient deed granted by King George III, of England, on February 22, 1764, 12 years before the United States declared their independence. The document was a grant for 200 acres of land in Dobbs county, afterwards partitioned into Lenoir, Wayne, Greene and other counties, to Philip Stone. It bears the signatures of Arthur Dobbs, "captain general and governor-in-chief"; R. D. Choswell and Thos. Rutherford, secretary to the Governor. The seal of the crown is stamped on beeswax. All the writing and printing is clearly legible. The old instrument is highly valued.

HACKNEY FOR LEGISLATURE

Prominent Manufacturer Mentioned to Succeed Connor

Wilson, N. C., July 2.—Chairman Lucas, of the County Board of Elections, advised Governor Craig yesterday of the resignation of Representative George W. Connor, who has been sworn in as Superior Court judge of the Second district. It is expected here that a special election will be ordered for the purpose of filling the vacancy and Wilson people are urging Mr. George Hackney, president of the Hackney Buggy Company, and also president of the Wilson County Just Freight Rate Association, to accept the place. Mr. Hackney has not announced himself as a candidate but has assured his friends that he would not decline if nominated.

TO USE WILMINGTON SCENES.

Photographs Sent Thomas Dixon, the Novelist and Playwright.

In response to a letter recently received from Mr. Thomas Dixon, the famous author and playwright, the Chamber of Commerce has forwarded to him a large number of photographs of scenes in and around Wilmington showing the river, the boats and the live oaks with the gray moss hanging in profusion from the limbs, which will be used by Mr. Dixon in the dramatization of one of his novels, one of the scenes of which he says, is laid in Wilmington.

It is understood that Mr. Dixon will take the leading part in this play which promises to be the best that he has yet written. As it will be played in all parts of this country as well as in foreign countries it will mean a great advertisement for the city of Wilmington. It is not known just when the play will make its appearance, but it is presumed that it will be in the early Fall.

Mr. Dixon has dramatized practically all the books which he has written, and all of these have been very successful. Several of them have been played in Wilmington, and he himself has visited the city frequently. The fact that he has decided to use Wilmington as one of the prominent scenes in his forthcoming play will cause it to have an additional interest for Wilmington people.

There is probably no better way in which to show the natural beauty and the charming character of the scenery in and around Wilmington to non-residents than by means of a play such as Mr. Dixon is writing.

A Definition of Automobile Service

This is a much talked-about subject.

Every dealer, every manufacturer, talks about it. Some are specific, some only suggest what it might be. This is our definition.

See if you do not agree that it is the most important in the consideration of your motor car purchase.

No man, no matter how experienced, can know what service any car will render. No two drivers operate their car alike. No two cars are called upon to render the same kind of service.

Machinery will wear out. It must be attended to, and some one expert, willing and broad in mind, must be there to see that the car gives the service you expect it to give.

A car must be built with a sufficient allowance to take care of the average demand made upon it.

No dealer can give service who is not successful. Motor car satisfaction is largely a matter of dealer satisfaction. To be able to give such service the dealer must make a profit. He cannot sell his cars at a discount. He cannot make unreasonable allowances for old automobiles in order to make a sale and have a profit left sufficient to give the service that should go with every motor car.

He must see the broader possibilities of conducting his business upon a service basis than is often found, especially among dealers whose only interest is in making the sale.

Buy a Six if Paying More Than $2,000

The "54" HUDSON is all that any automobile at any price can be in performance, luxury, comfort and value. Backed by our own service you will find in it as near an approach to ideal motor satisfaction as is known.

The "54" HUDSON is the answer to a question that has long concerned all automobile builders. "What will Howard E. Coffin do when he builds a Six?"

When he built this car he had as his associates experts from 97 leading American and European factories—48 all told.

Thus all guess work was eliminated—all experiment made unnecessary. With so many viewpoints and so much experience, errors that others had made were eliminated—advancements that others found impossible were easily accomplished.

The "54" HUDSON has electric lights. It is electrically self-cranked. The famous Delco system, patented, is used. Every luxury is included, speedometer, clock, top, curtains, rain-vision windshield, demountable rims, twelve-inch upholstery, etc. Equipped with a five-passenger Phaeton body at $2450.

At $1875 you can obtain the HUDSON "37"—designed by the same engineers that built the "54"—and pointed to as the "Four-cylinder masterpiece."

REGULAR SESSION COUNCIL

Meeting Yesterday Morning Lasted Less Than An Hour—Several Routine Matters Up—Excess Water Charges

City Council was in regular weekly session for less than an hour yesterday morning. There was not much business awaiting the consideration of the Council and the few matters that came up were disposed of in short order. Mayor Moore presided with all members in attendance, also Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, and City Attorney E. K. Bryan.

A communication was received from Chief of Police Williams stating that the sidewalk in front of the homes of Mr. John W. Monroe, No. 316 North Second street, and Mrs. James, next door, is in bad condition. Upon motion of Councilman Loughlin it was ordered that the owners of the property abutting be notified to put down an improved sidewalk.

Some one remarked that the city now has $10,000 tied up in sidewalk improvements, having advanced this amount for property owners, taking a lien on the property until the same is paid. Councilman Merritt inquired of Mayor Moore if this money, when paid back, would go into the fund of the street department. Mayor Moore said that he did not think so, as the $10,000 represents a portion of the money borrowed by the last administration and as it is paid in by the property owners should be placed to the credit of the general fund.

Report was made that City Attorney Bryan had declined to approve the contract submitted by the local attorney of the Seaboard Air Line for the sidetrack at the waterworks plant at Hilton, on the ground that the document is so worded that the city would have to indemnify the railroad company for any damages arising from any accidents that might occur there. The contract was before City Attorney McChammy, of the former administration and he declined to approve it.

Mayor Moore called for reports of the departments. Councilman Loughlin suggested that the charter requires a written report once a month. He said he had not been observing the requirement, but hoped that all would make written report hereafter. He said there was nothing to report from his department yesterday.

Councilman Jones, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, recommended that police call telephones in the outlying districts be discontinued as they are not needed since the new call system has been installed. The recommendation was considered a good one and it was so ordered.

A resolution was introduced by Councilman Jones providing that the city property at the northwest corner of Sixth and Castle streets be offered for sale, the proceeds to be used in the construction of a new fire station at Fifth and Castle streets. If it is sold, the city will continue to use the property for a fire station until the proposed new building is completed at Fifth and Castle. The resolution was adopted.

Upon the recommendation of Councilman Merritt, in charge of the Department of Streets and Wharves, it was ordered that the city purchase another car of road oil to be used on the streets of the city. One car has just been used in treating the macadam streets and has proven very satisfactory. The sprinkler that is used for distributing the oil is the only one the Standard Oil Co., which sells the oil, has south of Baltimore at the present time, it was stated, and it was thought best to continue the oiling of the streets now before the sprinkler is removed to some other city. A car of oil costs about $300. Besides acting as a binder and preserving the streets, the oil makes it unnecessary to sprinkle the streets with water, as there is no dust, and it is claimed that the oil drives the mosquitoes from the neighborhood in which it is used.

The ordinance offered last week by Councilman Wood changing the water rates, cutting the fixture rates slightly, was adopted.

Mention was made of an effort that is soon to be made to give the merchants privilege of using a portion of the sidewalk in front of their stores for the display of their goods. The matter is to be taken up in conference, it was stated, and some plan will be evolved, it is hoped, by members of Council, by which this privilege can be restored to the merchants.

Report was made by City Attorney Bryan that the Tidewater Power Co. had declined to pay the balance the city claims to be due as its portion of the cost of the street paving on the streets where it has car tracks. The city is asking for the difference between the cost of 12 inches and 18 inches on either side of the car tracks, amounting to about $2,700. The city attorney was asked to bring suit for the collection of the amount claimed.

Councilman Wood said that he would like for members of Council to be thinking over the proposition of requiring the Tidewater Power Co., to put up iron poles in the downtown district in place of the unsightly and dangerous wooden trolley poles. He said that he would not bring the question up at that time, but would at a later meeting. Attention was called to the fact that one of the poles broke at Front and Princess streets last Sunday night, but fortunately no one was hurt. In Charlotte and Asheville recently the electric companies have been required to put up ornamental poles for street lighting and Councilman Wood believes that a change of lighting should be required in this city.

Treated Discourteously

Just as the Council was breaking up Mrs. William Augustus Wright, one of Wilmington's best known women, appeared before the body to make complaint of discourteous treatment accorded her at the office of the Water and Sewerage Department.

"I want to ask you gentlemen," she said, "to put a man in charge of the waterworks department who is courteous to people."

"Tell us what is the trouble," said Mayor Moore.

"I went in to pay my water bill for the quarter," she said, "and inquired the reason for the great excess charged to me. He abruptly threw the book down on the counter to me and rudely said, 'Here is the book, you can look it up for yourself.' I don't know anything about the books; I asked for information from your superintendent as to why the bill was so high this month.

"I have been living at my present place a number of years and the water bill has never run over $6 a quarter until now, when the bill is $12.50. I would like to know the reason of the sudden jump in the amount of the bill when we have not been using any more water."

Mayor Moore and members of the Council promised to look into the matter—of excess, the assistant superintendent being instructed to make an in-

HOTELS TO REMAIN OPEN

Stockholders Decide Not to Close the Hotels on Wrightsville Beach—Hopeful That Patronage Will Improve

Stockholders of the three hotels on Wrightsville Beach held a joint meeting at the Orton Hotel, in Wilmington, yesterday morning to consider the question of whether the present season should be terminated now on account of the poor and diminishing patronage, due, the managers of the hotels assert, to the rigid enforcement of the law which prohibits the sale of beer at the resort.

The situation was placed squarely up to the stockholders by the managers of the hotels, after which every phase of the question was freely and fully discussed. The managers stated the situation about as outlined in yesterday's Star. They asked the stockholders to advise them what they should do—continue the hotels or close.

The stockholedrs voted to continue the operation of the hotels for the next few weeks, possibly to the end of the month, and if by that time the situation is not improved it is their purpose to close.

A committee of three was appointed to confer with an attorney with a view of finding some way, if possible, by which the sale of beer could be resumed at the resort without fear of molestation by the law. The attorney consulted gave the committee absolutely no encouragement, it was stated, and it is believed that no further effort will be made to place the beverage on sale at the resort.

It was suggested yesterday that the hotels should inaugurate an extensive advertising campaign, stressing the point that Wrightsville Beach is the only seaside resort on the coast where no intoxicants are allowed to be sold, but this plan has not been officially considered, it is said. However, it has the approval of some of the big stockholders in the hotels. Those who favor this plan argue that by spending a liberal sum in newspaper advertising throughout North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and possibly one or two other States, that sufficient number of people who do not care for beer or other beverages of this character to fill the resort, hotels and boarding houses, could be induced to come to Wrightsville Beach. They point out that there are hundreds who care nothing for beer or stronger drinks and would prefer going to a place where the stuff is not sold. This view is not shared by a great many, however.

Managers of the beach hotels yesterday received from Mr. Fred Geisler, Seaboard Air Line representative in Atlanta, telegrams to the effect that the resort was being greatly damaged in Atlanta by reports being brought there by persons returning from the beach about the "stringent laws covering refreshments and amusements of all kinds," and stating that already the Atlanta business to Wrightsville Beach is one-third off with prospects of further decrease unless something is done to relieve the situation. He also impressed upon the managers the fact that other resorts along the coast are carrying on an effective advertising campaign.

There are only a small number of guests, comparatively speaking, at the hotels now but this number will be greatly increased today, tomorrow and Saturday. There are a great many who believe that the hotels will be comfortably filled throughout this month regardless of the fact that no liquid refreshments are served the guests.

Wilmingtonians have possibly never realized before the value of Wrightsville Beach as a commercial asset. One man stated yesterday that should the beach season fail at this time it would mean a loss to Wilmington of no less than half a million dollars. While the estimate is considered rather high, it is nevertheless a fact that the loss would be heavy. It will run more than $100,000 in groceries alone.

The hotels expect to remain open as long as they can profitably do so, but if business continues to fall off instead of improve as ordinarily it would at this period of the season, the hotels will close for the year.

Carolina Beach Also

Mr. Hans Kure, who for 30 years has been connected with the Summer business at Carolina Beach, told a Star man yesterday that business this Summer had practically played out with him on account of the same causes which are alleged to have cut the patronage at Wrightsville Beach. He says Carolina Beach is in the same boat with Wrightsville. Other resorts where entertainment, amusement and refreshments are full and free have drawn the festive Summer resorter away from the New Hanover beaches, he says.

COMPLETE OUTSIDE WORK.

New Cape Fear Club House Will Soon be Finished.

The scaffolding for the outside work of the new Cape Fear Club House, southeast corner Second and Chesnut streets, was yesterday removed by the workmen, and for the first time the people of Wilmington were able to see clearly the outline of the handsome structure. Especially striking in appearance were the four magnificent columns on the front, facing Second street. The only work remaining to be done on the outside is the laying of the floor for the front portico.

The inside work was begun several weeks ago, and the wiring has already been completed. The plastering is now being done, and it is expected to have the building completed not later than August 15th. Wallace & Osterman, who have the contract for its erection, began work on its construction the first of the year, and have pushed the work as rapidly as weather conditions would permit.

Jimmy Dunn, Crack Farmer

"I want to introduce you to Uncle Jimmy Dunn," said Capt. W. J. Meredith to a Star man yesterday afternoon; "he is Bladen county's crack farmer, and he can get anything I got." Saying which he presented an old colored man, an ante-bellum negro, 72 years old, who owns his own farm and equipment and who has 40 acres of the finest cotton anywhere, good for at least 40 bales, and more perhaps. He is the only man who can show a cotton boll, and he was the first man last year. Uncle Jimmy is a tall, spare old man, cold black, and like seasoned hickory. His type is so far removed from the type so frequently seen in the Recorder's court that evidence is racial kinship approaches the vanishing point.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE ACT

Two Arrests Made Yesterday by Police Department Under New Prohibition Law—Trial Today Before Recorder.

Two arrests were made yesterday by members of the police department under the provisions of the search and seizure act enacted by the last Legislature. One of these was B. F. Hawkins, a well known carpenter, who is alleged to have received six gallons of whiskey on Monday, and the other Lawson Andrews, colored, who was captured on the Castle Haynes road late yesterday afternoon with 15 quarts of booze in his possession.

Hawkins put up $100 cash bond and Andrews in default of $250 bond was placed in the city prison. Both will have a hearing this morning before the Recorder.

The police department learned through the express office of the alleged shipment of whiskey to Hawkins, and Tuesday night searched his residence at No. 917 North Sixth street, but did not finc any whiskey. They also searched the residence of his son, J. D. Hawkins, who runs a store at 1410 North 10th street, but failed to find any whiskey here also.

It is stated that Hawkins does not deny having received the whiskey, but says that he gave it to his friends, and that he did not receive any profit from it. There is no evidence, so far as is known, that he sold any of it. Under the new law, however, if anyone receives over five gallons in four weeks it is prima facie evidence of a sale, and the burden of proof is upon the person receiving it to show what he did with it.

For some time the officers have been keeping a close watch for persons who go to Norfolk and other places for the purpose of getting whiskey. Yesterday afternoon they received a tip that a negro was coming in on the afternoon train with a supply and Officers Lane, Leon George and Frank George went down to the station for the purpose of finding out if such a person came in. When they failed to find any suspicious looking grips Officers Leon George and Frank George went down the Castle Haynes road to see if any suspicious looking grips came in that way.

On the outskirts of the city they met Lawson Andrews, colored, coming into the city in a hack. When they halted him he attempted, it is said, to draw his pistol, but one of the officers quickly covered him with his gun, and he did not resist further. It is stated that he had a grip which contained a dozen quarts of good whiskey while he had two other quarts wrapped up in a paper and a quart of wine in his pocket.

He was brought to the City Hall, together with the whiskey, and placed in the city prison. He will have to answer today to the charge of carrying concealed weapons, and also to the charge of selling whiskey to unknown parties.

It is stated that frequently persons have been known to get off the train at Wrightsboro instead of coming in on the train, and it is presumed that this is what Andrews did. The officers are keeping a close lookout at Wrightsboro as well as at Castle Haynes, and are determined that no person shall bring whiskey into Wilmington via either of these points.

OPENING MEETING TODAY

State Rural Letter Carriers Assemble for Two-Day Session—Address Today by Congressman H. L. Godwin.

The 10th annual State convention of the North Carolina Rural Letter Carriers' Association will convene in the United States Court room in the postoffice building here this morning at 9 o'clock. Congressman H. L. Godwin arrived from Washington last night and will deliver an address before the carriers this afternoon. A number of the carriers arrived last night and others will come in on the morning trains.

This morning the opening session will begin with the singing of "America" and devotional exercises by Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church. The address of welcome to the carriers will be made by Col. Walker Taylor, which will be responded to by Mr. Thos. V. Howell, of Peachland. After a short business session the meeting will adjourn for dinner.

After the reading of the report of the credential committee at the afternoon session, Postmaster H. McL. Green will introduce Congressman Godwin, who will deliver an address. Following his address a number of the carriers will discuss the different phases of their work.

There will be no night session, but it is expected that immediately following the afternoon session the carriers will go to Wrightsville Beach where they will be entertained by members of the local entertainment committee.

At the morning session tomorrow there will be reports from the various committees and an address by Mr. O. F. Crowson, a well known newspaper man of Burlington, who is now located in Washington, being secretary of a Congressional committee.

All unfinished business will be attended to at the afternoon session tomorrow after which will come the election of officers and the selection of the place for the next meeting.

While they are in the city the Gilbert House will be headquarters for the delegates. The committee on entertainment is as follows: Mr. R. F. Gore, chairman; Mr. J. W. Russ, Wilmington; Mr. D. J. Ward, Winnabow; Mr. A. J. Mallard, Atkinson; Mr. L. B. Carr, Wallace. They have made preparations for seeing that the delegates enjoy themselves while here. It is expected that there will be between 75 and 100 delegates in attendance.

The officers of the association are: President, Mr. C. H. Howard, St. Pauls; vice president, Mr. J. M. Hayes, Burlington; secretary and treasurer, Mr. R. C. D. Beaman, Stantonsburg.

—Mr. C. D. Myers leaves today for Omaha, Neb., to attend the national convention of Cleaners and Dyers. Before returning home he will visit a number of the Western cities.

NAVIGATION AND PILOTAGE

Regular Monthly Meeting of Board of Commissioners—Official Report of Proceedings—Proposed Removal of Lightship.

Wilmington, N. C., July 2, 1913.

Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage was held today, with the following present: Vice Chairman J. W. Harper, Commisioners H. G. Smallbones, William St. George and J. J. Loughlin, and Clerk L. Brown McKoy.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with.

The Board first took up the ase of Pilot J. L. Daniels, who had been summoned to appear at the meeting on the charge of boarding a vessel at sea from a tug boat and offering his services for pilotage, this being in violation of the rules of the Board, which provide that a pilot shall cruise and offer his services for pilotage only in a properly licensed pilot boat. It appeared from Pilot Daniels' report that he took the schooner Waltham to sea on June 19th and that later, while on board the tug boat Castor, he fell in with the schooner Frederick W. Ayer, off the bar without a pilot, and, there being no other pilot around or in sight, he boarded the schooner and piloted her in, in tow of the tug Castor. Upon being questioned by the Commissioners, Pilot Daniels stated that no urgent or peculiar conditions obtained at the time of his boarding the Frederick W. Ayer, the weather being good and the schooner being in no distress whatever. Pilot Daniels was then excused and the Board went into executive session, ruling that Pilot Daniels' action was in direct violation of the regulations, and ordering that his function as pilot be suspended for one month from the date of the meeting, July 2, 1913, with the warning that any further breach of the regulation would be more severely dealt with. The Clerk was instructed to notify Pilot Daniels accordingly.

The following correspondence was read and approved by the Board.

"Wilmington, N. C., June 16, 1913.

"Major H. W. Stickle, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir:—I quote below, for your official information, from a letter just received from Pilot J. J. Adkins, of Southport, under date of June 14, 1913. I mailed to you on June 10th a copy of the soundings report, to which Mr. Adkins refers in the last paragraph of his letter. Respectfully,

(Copy)

"Board of Comm. of Nav. and Pilotage, Wilmington, N. C.

"Gentlemen:—I beg leave to report that while coming in over the bar Thursday morning about 6 o'clock, in the German steamer Alster, took bottom on starboard bilge just opposite red buoy No. 2, though slightly, with the ranges open to the westward.

"I deem it very necessary to call your attention to this fact, as the above named shoal is fast encroaching on the channel range, and it is very dangerous to undertake to run the ranges on at this particular point.

"The soundings taken last month, of which I was one of the committee, showed a decided shoaling on the eastern edge of the ranges, as you will observe twenty-nine and one-half feet is given with the ranges on, in the last soundings report.

"Very respectfully,

"J. J. ADKINS."

War Department, United States Engineer Office, Wilmington, N. C., June 18, 1913.

"Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage, Wilmington, N.C.

"Sirs:—I thank you for your letter of June 16th, containing copy of report from the master of the S. S. Alster concerning deficieny in the channel depth opposite Red Buoy No. 2, Cape Fear River Bar.

"The work of the dredge Cape Fear is being concentrated in the vicinity of Buoy No. 2 as much as possible at the present time, and it is expected that no further difficulties will be encountered.

"On account of rough weather for a large part of last month, the dredge was unable to operate very much of the time on the bar—which probably accounts for the condition reported.

"Very respectfully,

"H. W. STICKLE,

"Major, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A."

It appeared from reports made at the meeting, however, that the shoal condition in the vicinity of Buoy No. 2 still prevailed to some extent, and the Clerk was instructed to communicate with the Engineer Office again, in the hope that the trouble might be speedily remedied, so as to obviate any possible strandings.

It was the opinion of the Harbor Master and of several of the Commissioners, after a general discussion of the matter, that while constant dredging of the bar will keep it in reasonably good condition, this continual dredging is very expensive and the results obtained only temporary, and that a deep and permanent channel can best be secured on the bar by the establishment of jetties, which method has been used very successfully at Georgetown, Charleston, Jacksonville, and other ports. It is hoped that the Government can be induced to provide such facilities for the Cape Fear bar.

Captain Edgar D. Williams, Harbor Master, appeared before the Board, stating that a Notice to Mariners had been issued by the Government, to the effect that on or about August 1, 1913, the number "94" on the Frying Pan Shoals Light Vessell would be removed; and that he had been informed, upon apparently reliable authority, that the light vesel itself would soon be removed to a position some thirteen miles further out to sea, where it would be of no use whatever to the Wilmington commerce, for which the vessel was built. The Board has objected strenuously to this proposed removal, sending various petitions and communications to the Washington authorities protesting against the change and our Representatives in Congress are using their every effort to have the light-vessel retained in its present position for the benefit of Wilmington shipping.

The Harbor Master read the following letter on the subject, which is addressed to Senator Overman under date of June 28th:

"Hon. Lee S. Overman, United States Senator, Washington, D. C.

"Sir:—I wish to call your attention to Notice to Mariners issued June 20, 1913: 'North Carolina. Frying Pan Shoals Light-Vessel No. 94. On or about August 1, 1913, the number '94' on each bow and quarter of the vessel will be permanently removed.'

"It is a great pity that our protest, which has been forwarded to Washington, has not been given attention. I will ask you and our other representatives to use every influence possible to allow this light-ship to remain where she has been for one hundred years, guarding the most dangerous shoals on the Atlantic Coast.

"This light-ship has been the means of saving the crews of many stranded vessels which have grounded inside the present position. These crews managed, after their vessels became a total loss, to reach the light-ship, which was only some five or six miles away, and all hands were saved; but to remove this light-ship thirteen miles off shore, it would be no protection, and with heavy northwest winds vessels and their crews would no doubt be total losses, as they could not make land with the sea against them, and neither could they reach the lightship if she is moved thirteen miles from her present position.

"The moving of this light-ship will be of benefit only to the large steamship lines. The masters of these ships would like to have the light-vessel on the straight course, so they could lie comfortably in their berths and not be called after the ship is made, as there is plenty of water and no danger in that vicinity.

"There is no excuse or advantage whatever in the removing of this lightship from the position where she has stood guard for so many years and has been the means of saving a great number of crews and rescuing property.

"Hoping that you will use every means possible to head off this movement, as it would be a great disadvantage to the commerce of this port, I am, with kindest regards,

"Yours respectfully,

"EDGAR D. WILLIAMS,

"Harbor Master."

The Board instructed the Clerk to take the matter up again with the Washington authorities and to use every possible means to have the light-ship retained in its present position.

Monthly report from the bar soundings committee was read and approved. The Board also approved the Clerk's suggestion that, in view of the limited number of pilots, the monthly and quarterly soundings committee be made smaller, so that the various pilots, who are appointed on these committees in rotation, will not be forced to serve so often. The committees in future, therefore, will be composed of four pilots for monthly bar soundings, and five pilots or quarterly river soundings, instead of six pilots and ten pilots, respectively, as has been the custom heretofore.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

L. BROWN McKOY, Clerk.

Frying Pan Vessel Replaced

The current number of "Notice to Mariners," issued by the Lighthouse board, contains this item of interest locally: "Frying Pan Shoals—Frying Pan Shoals Light Vessel No. 94, replaced on station and Relief Light Vessel No. 29 withdrawn June 19th. No change was made in the characteristics or general appearance of Light Vessel No. 94."

MRS. R. A. MURRAY DEAD

Aged Lady Passed Away Yesterday at Home of Daughter

Yesterday morning at 7:20 o'clock Mrs. Rebecca A. Murray died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mattie L. Chasten, No. 602 Chesnut street. Mrs. Murray had been in feeble health for several months, and since May 11th had been confined to her bed. She had been gradually growing weaker for the last few days, and the end was not unexpected. The bereaved family have the tender sympathy of many friends.

Mrs. Murray had been for many years a faithful member of Grace Methodist church and the funeral services will be held from this church this morning at 10:30 o'clock. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. D. Bundy, the services will be conducted by Rev. L. E. Thompson, presiding elder for this district, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Murray was born April 14th, 1834, and was, therefore, in the 80th year of her age. She is survived by one brother, Mr. Matthew Laspeyre, who lives in Georgia; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Pettway, of Wilmington; a daughter, Mrs. Mattie L. Chasten, of this city, and two grandchildren, Miss Agnes Chasten and Mr. James Chasten. She was the widow of the late Mr. A. J. Murray, of this city.

SOME WEATHER—THIS.

Heat Wave All Over Country, With Unprecedented Disturbances.

The mercury yesterday registered a maximum of 94 degrees in the weather bureau office here, five degrees more than was recorded Tuesday when the maximum was 89, and but two degrees under the record of 96 for the Summer. At Charlotte yesterday the top was 98; Charleston 94; Raleigh 96. The weather forecast is local showers today with little change in temperature. The heat wave extends all over the country and the number of heat prostrations in the cities where the temperature is highest is fully up to similar periods in the past. The electrical disturbances are said to be unprecedented both as to frequency and intensity. Over the large territory served by the transmission lines of the Southern Power Company, in Piedmont North and South Carolina, there has been a very great deal of trouble and the power lines have been seriously handicapped. Damage is reported from all sections by lightning and a number of deaths have occurred from this cause.

Locally the temperature has compared most favorably with other State cities, being lower in most cases than elsewhere in the State. Whenever Wilmington people think it is very hot or very cold, they can bet their last dollar that it is worse somewhere else.

Still, it has been plenty hot here. The fiend who greets you with, "Is it hot enough for you?" appears to have had his tribe increased. Yesterday was truly sweltering and many sought the beaches for relief.

The following from yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer is interesting in this connection: "The weather has been very warm here today. At 8 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 87, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon it stood at 96 on the south side of Hay street, which is the shady and cool side."

During June, according to the records, there were but six wholly clear days; 17 were partly clear, and seven were cloudy. The precipitation for the month was 6.06 inches. Last year in June it was 6.10. The nominal for the month is 5.62.

The highest temperature was 96 degrees on the 17th, and the lowest was 51 degrees on the 10th. The mean temperature for the month was 74 degrees and the nominal is 75.5.

And while the rest of the country is sweltering, news comes from Salt Lake City, Utah, that rain and snow in that State have prevailed, the temperature in Salt Lake City being 53 and snow storms raging in the higher altitudes.

—W. B. Dew and John Skipper engaged in a fisticuff yesterday near the Delgado store, and later submitted before Justice Harriss to simple assault, and were each taxed with the costs.

Wrightsville Beach

The usual mid-week dance was given last night at Lumina and was attended by a large number of people from Wilmington as well as from the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wright and the Misses Wright, who have been staying at the Seashore Hotel for the last month, have returned to their home at Boardman.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mrs. John B. Oates and pretty little daughter, Miss Vera Webb Oates, expect to leave within a few days for Wrightsville Beach, where they will be joined by Mrs. Oates' mother, Mrs. George Webb, of Birmingham."

Arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wood, Monroe; Mrs. Geo. Kelly and children, Mrs. L. A. Patterson, Birmingham; Mrs. W. B. Austin, Atlanta; S. O. Bolton, Charlotte; Robt. H. Breese, Raleigh; E. G. Richardson, Charlotte.

Raleigh News and Observer, yesterday: "Mrs. George H. Snow, Mrs. A. A. Boylston and Miss Adelaide Boylston left yesterday to spend several days at Wrightsville Beach.—Dr. and Mrs. Carl Norris, of Durham, passed through yesterday on their way to Wrightsville Beach."

Yesterday's arrivals at the Seashore Hotel included: Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan, Miss Jarnigan, Mrs. W. P. Cooledge, Mrs. E. K. vanWinkle, E. H. vanWinkle, Jr., Mrs. John Glenn and child, Mrs. G. W. Forester and child, Atlanta; John C. Holland, Fayetteville; H. G. Elliott, Atlanta.

BRIGHT YOUNG GIRL TRIES HER HAND AT POETRY.

Two years ago while visiting at Mr. Howell's on Greenville Sound an article in the Ladies' Home Companion aroused Laura Howell's and Helen Dunn Creasy's literary ambition, and each decided to try to write a poem. Below is printed the poem written by Helen Dunn, then nine years old, without assistance. Since that time she has corrected the spelling, and her mother the punctuation, otherwise it is as she then wrote it.

(The Frog's Reply.)

Froggie, froggie, where're you going?
Going a-courting so gay.
Froggie, froggie, where does she live?
Away down in yonder bay.
"Cut a chuck", was all he said,
And dived in mud on his head.

Froggie, froggie, what does she do?
Washes clothes for you and me.
Froggie, froggie, how old is she?
Sixteen, but she's young to flee.
"Cut a chuck," again he said,
And dived in mud on his head.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mr. H. Gideon, a Syrian merchant who Tuesday filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in United States Court, was yesterday morning adjudged a bankrupt by Geo. H. Howell, Esq., referee in bankruptcy, to whom the matter was referred. July 14th is named as the date of the first meeting of creditors.

—Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: W. M. Cumming and wife to Abram Dlugin and Jacob Dlugin, for $100 and other considerations, lot on north side of Wright street, 132 feet west of 12th, 35x100 feet in size; Andy Rom and wife to V. Sidbury, of Onslow county, for $300, 100 acres of land on main road, between Wilmington and Scott's Hill.

THE WILMINGTON WAY.

Col. Harris Says All Close Up Saturdays at Noon and Go Fishing.

In his "Side Table" column Wednesday Col. Wade H. Harris, editor of the Charlotte Observer, had the following of interest in Wilmington:

"It has been discovered by a writer in the New York Post, that the Saturday half-holiday is sanctioned by law in some States. It is the law in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Tennessee, Virginia, in New Castle county, Del., and in the city of New Orleans. We believe The Observer may add that it is the accepted law, also, in the North Carolina city of Wilmington, for if our recollection is correct, everybody shuts up shop in Wilmington at noon on Saturdays and goes fishing. At any rate, Wilmington has always been hospitable to the half-holiday. It is a popular idea for the Summer months and other towns are coming to it."

Atlanta Journal: "Mrs. L. R. Sams will leave Thursday for Wrightsville Beach, where she will spend a month."

Good Time Now for Blood Health

Warm Days and Proper Help do Wonders for the Blood.

A few doses of that wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S., will start activities in the cellular tissues of the body and soon show decided changes in the skin. The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of these cells. Certain it is that in a surprisingly short time any skin eruption shows a most remarkable change; it begins to dry up; the skin scales off in tiny flecks, and soon a layer of clear, healthy and firm tissue results.

The reason for this is in the peculiar stimulation of S. S. S., which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutriment it requires for regeneration.

This fact has been demonstrated year in and year out in a wonderful number of cases of severe skin diseases that had seemed to be incurable.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store, if you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something "just as good."

S. S. S. is prepared by the Swift Specific Co., 180 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for their illustrated book on skin diseases.

NOTICE OF SALE.

Pursuant to an order of the Superior Court for New Hanover County, entered at the May Term, 1913, in a case therein pending, wherein Theodore M. Myers, et al., are plaintiffs, and the Scott's Hill Land & Lumber Company is defendant, the undersigned commissioners will, on the 10th day of July, 1913, at 12 o'clock M., at the place of business of the Scott's Hill Land & Lumber Company, Scott's Hill, N. C., sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, all the following real and personal property, belonging to the said Scott's Hill Land & Lumber Company, and situate in Pender and New Hanover Counties, to-wit:

REAL PROPERTY.

FIRST TRACT: Beginning at a cypress in Old House Branch, and running thence South 2 deg. East, 12 poles, to a stake; thence South 88½ deg. West, 61 poles, to stake; thence South 2½ poles to a lightwood stump; thence North 89 deg. West, 145 poles, to a pine; thence North 35½ poles, to a spruce pine, at the run of Old House Branch; thence with the meanders of said branch, to the beginning; containing, by estimation, 300 acres, same being on the North side of the railroad, about two miles from the Scott's Hill Depot.

SECOND TRACT: Beginning at the Southeast corner of the church lot of the M. E. Church, South, at Scott's Hill, in the center of the side track of the Wilmington & Newbern Railroad, and running thence with the course of the side track in a Northeast direction, 173 feet to a stake, 7 feet at right angles from the center of said side track to the West side of the same, and running thence North 79 deg. West, 823 feet, to a stake in fence line; thence South 33 deg. 15 min. West, 435 feet, to a sycamore tree in the edge of an old grave yard; thence South 68 deg. 45 min. East, 371 feet, to a stake in the Western corner of the Methodist Church lot; thence North 35 deg. 30 min. East, 242 feet, to a stake in the Northern corner of the Methodist Church lot; thence South 53 deg. 15 min. East, 447 feet, to the point of beginning; containing 4.9 acres; and being the tract of land upon which the mill and plant of the Scott's Hill Land & Lumber Company is located.

THIRD TRACT: All the standing timber measuring 12 inches in diameter, 18 inches from the ground, upon the following described tract of land, lying and being in Topsail Township, Pender County, and bounded as follows: On the North by lands of G. W. Huggins; on the East by lands of Jasper Sidbury; on the South and West by lands of W. H. Hill; containing 400 acres, more or less. It is the condition of this deed that the timber shall be removed from the aforementioned land within eight years from the 9th day of March, 1911. The party of the first part hereby conveys to the party of the second part all the rights and privileges of ingress, egress and regress named in the deed from J. T. Foy and wife.

FOURTH TRACT: 1st. Being a certain lot or parcel of land allotted to E. M. Foy in the division of the estate of J. M. Foy, deceased, and described as follows, to-wit: Situated on the East side of Island Creek and South side of Wanny's Branch, beginning at a sweet gum tree on the spot where formerly stood a stooping chinquepin; running thence North 85 East 77 poles, to a stake; thence South 36 poles, to a stake, Henry S. Foy's Northwest corner; thence East with said H. S. Foy's line, 220 poles, to a stake; thence North 58 East, 110 poles, to a gum tree on the run of Wanny's Branch; thence with the run of said branch, along the various courses thereof, about 286 poles, to a maple, the corner of the Sholar tract; thence with the Sholar line, South 44 West, 332 poles, to the beginning; containing by estimation, 337¼ acres, more or less.

THE COTTON MARKET QUIET

Prices Higher Owing to Bullish View of Expected Condition Report—Some Nervousness Over the Boll Weevil

New York, July 2—The cotton market was comparatively quiet again today, but prices were higher, owing to rather a more bullish view as to the probably showing of the official condition report tomorrow, and more or less nervousness over the boll weevil situation.

The close was steady, and from 8 to 12 points above the final figures of yesterday. The market opened firm at an advance of 8 to 13 points in response to higher cables than expected and a private crop report making the condition 80.3 against a report by the same authority of 80.5 last month, an dthe government's condlion report of 80.4 per cent. last year.

Private cables indicated that the Liverpool market had been influenced by the private crop report, and there was quite an active covering movement in the local market on which prices sold about 13 to 16 points net higher during the early trading. Realizing by recent buyers checked the advance around this level, and the market later was comparatively quiet, with closing prices showing reactions of a few points from the best. Reports received from New Orleans today stated that the boll weevil had appeared in Oklahoma at about the northwestern limit of previous boll weevil invasion, and further reports was regarding the presence of pest in other sections of the belt.

Local traders appeared to find little fault with prevailing weather conditions, but between the lower private condition figures and the boll weevil news, there was certainly some nervousness over the new crop outlook. Reports from the ocean freight market reiterated earlier week rumors that 20,000 bales were to be shipped from here to Liverpool this month.

Spot cotton closed quiet. Middling uplands, 12.45; middling gulf, 12.70; sales, none.

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Son Mills, Colored, Found Not Guilty of Larceny

The Recorder yesterday discharged Son Mills, colored, who was charged with the larceny of $12.30. Mills seems to have been arrested mainly on the assertions of a fortune teller of the city who stated that the missing money was taken by a negro of his description. The evidence was heard several days ago, but judgment was reserved. The cases against George Weston, colored, charged with attempting to break into the office of the clerk of the Recorder's court and with violating the prohibition law, were continued until today.

Eugene Potter plead guilty to assaulting his wife, and judgment was held open until today. The case against Norman Smith, colored, charged with abandoning his wife, was also continued until today. George Galloway, colored, who works for the Carolina Produce Co., and who is alleged to have embezzled $6 from his employer, was placed under a $200 bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior Court.

J. H. Holmes, colored, who was arrested Tuesday night for having a razor in his pocket, was fined $10 and the costs for carrying concealed weapons. The razor was on display, and appeared to have been recently sharpened. Joe Holsey and Jim Hawes, both colored, who were arrested Sunday morning by Officer D. W. Coleman for gambling, were discharged upon payment of the costs, it appearing that the other negroes who were with them at the time could not be found. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in the cases against Harris Gorman, Walter Pigfoot and Frailo Cumber, charged with disorderly conduct on the streets Tuesday night.

DULLNESS IN STOCK MARKET

Speculative Interest Completely Erased—Price Movements Nominal—Slight Yielding Tendency at Opening and Close

New York, July 2—The dullness of mid-Summer settled over the stock market today, and such traces of speculative interest as had survived be last few days of increasing inertia seemed to have been completely erased. Price movements were nominal. The market was characterized by a firm undrtone, although at the opening and again at the close, there was a slight yielding tendency.

Sentiment was inclined to be more cheerful. Crop reports, which are receiving more attention with the advent of July, and some fears were felt for further damage from heat in the Southwest. Money market conditions improved.

More important than either of these considerations as an immedate influence were indications of the strong technical position of the market. There was a keen borrowing demand for leading stocks, especially Union Pacific, which pointed to an oversold condition. Short covering was rendered difficult by the small offerings in sight around the present level of quotations. Operators were inclined to favor the long side of the market, but trading was on too small a scale to bring about a marked response in price movements.

Changes exceeding small fractions were limited principally to specialties, a number of which included the petroleum stocks, rose sharply.

Foreign markets were depressed by disturbances in the Balkans and heaviness of the home market at the opening, which was most noticeable in Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific, was associated with the decline in American abroad. There was some selling here for foreign account, but the total was comparatively small, and the local market seemed inclined to break away from the foreign influence, so long a factor of restraint.

Satisfactory passing of the July settlements here and abroad was reflected in the easier tendency of time money for the shorter dates. The banks maintained their conservative attitude, however, in regard to putting out money for longer periods and six months funds were still quoted at high rates, with virtually no offers.

Bonds were steady. The market showed some signs of investment inquiry. Total sales, par value, $1,150,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today, par value, $1,150,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today, 157,200, including American Tobacco, 100; C. and O., 2,000; L. and N., 200; N. and W., 200; S. A. L., 300; do. preferred, 900; Southern Railway, 200; Tennessee Copper, 300.

DAVID'S

The first "4th of July" celebration

IN those days they celebrated the country's independence of foreign rule; they had to fight for it, but they got it. In these days there's a different sort of independence to be gained; and you ought to help win it.

Independence from fraud in merchandise is one of the things we 're trying for; the elimination of the cheap stuff that masquerades as quality. It appears in clothing in the form of cotton mixed fabrics, in "sloppy" tailoring, in flashy, undignified styles.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

clothes are a declaration of independence; they're all-wool, the best tailoring, the best style; they give the wearer independence of thought; and they save him from paying too much for good clothes.

That's the way we sell them; at $18, $20, $25, and more; the best values you ever saw at $25.

REUNION REPLETE WITH INCIDENTS

Gen. Andrew West, of Atlanta, who is to represent the Governor of Georgia at tomorrow's exercises, was presented with a silver loving cup today by the Georgia delegation. Judge George Hillyar, of Georgia, made the presentation speech.

Fight Over Lincoln.

Seven men were stabbed tonight in a fight in the dining room of the Gettysburg hotel as a result of a fight which started when several men aroused the anger of an old veteran in blue by abusing Lincoln. Several of the wounded men are in a serious condition at the Pennsylvania State hospital. The State constabulary are making desperate efforts to find the men who did the stabbing.

The wounded men were Edward J. Carroll, sergeant of the quartermaster's corps, U. S. A.; David Farbor, of Butler, Pa., member of the State constabulary; John D. Maugin, Harrisburg, Pa.; Malcolm Griffin, of Bedford City, Pa.; Charles Susler, of West Fair View, Pa.; Hayder Renisbecker, of Gettysburg, and Harry A. Root, Sr., of Harrisburg, Pa.

Farber, Maugin and Griffin are in the most serious condition. Surgeons at the Pennsylvania State hospital would not venture predictions as to their chance of recovery.

According to all the information the authorities could gather, the fight started suddenly, and was over in a few minutes. It began shortly before 7 o'clock, when the dining room was full of people and caused a panic among the scores of guests. The veteran who was unhurt and disappeared in the melee was sitting near Farber and Carroll, when he heard the slighting remarks about Lincoln. He jumped to his feet and began to defend the martyred President and berated his detractors.

The men who were stabbed, according to the information the surgeons gathered, jumped to the defense of the veteran when the others closed in. Knives were out in a second, and the room was thrown into an uproar. It was all over before the rest of the men in the room could get their breath, and the men responsible for it all had fled. The fight spurred the medical men again tonight to an effort to have the Gettysburg saloons closed during the remainder of the celebration.

The constabulary later arrested a man who gave the name of W. B. Henry, and said his home was in Camden, N. J., as one of the men concerned in the affray.

LOBBY COMMITTEE GETS A NEW THRILL

several days, as a part of a bear raid to depress the value of the stock for speculative purposes.

While Lamar was on the stand, Chairman Overman endeavored to make him give his real name, but the witness refused. He admitted under Overman's questioning that he had been in Denver under the name of David H. Lewis, but denied he had used the name of Simon Wolf. He said Lamar was not his name, but declined to give the committee further information.

The Mulhall Charges

A sweeping investigation of lobbying charges made by Martin M. Mulhall, involving members of the House, will be authorized by the House, probably on Saturday. After two hours of heated discussion today the House referred the matter to the Rules committee with instructions to report out a resolution giving a committee broad inquisitorial powers to probe the matter.

Chairman Henry called a meeting of the Rules committee for tomorrow morning to begin framing the resolution. The question of appointing a committee to act in conjunction with the Senate Lobby committee will be taken up, and Senator Overman and other members of the Senate committee will be consulted. If a separate House committee is decided on an attempt will be made to reach an agreement with the Senate committee to divide the subject matter of the inquiry with the idea of allowing the House to probe such matters as concern its own members.

Resolutions of Inquiry

Resolutions of inquiry were presented by Representative Sherley, of Kentucky, one of the members listed by Colonel Mulhall as "easily influenced" and who declared he did not know Mulhall, Representative Neeley, of Kansas, and Representative Nolan, of California.

During the discussion on the floor it was made apparent that the proposed investigation may extend not only to activities of the National Association of Manufacturers, but to those of labor union agents, temperance association representatives and all others who have interested themselves in Congressional legislation.

STATE LAWYERS MEET.

Hon. John D. Bellamy Among Speakers at Asheville Last Night.

Asheville, N. C., July 2—With about 150 judges and lawyers present, the 15th annual convention of the North Carolina Bar Association met here tonight for a three-day session.

The principal address of the first session was that of Judge James S. Manning, of Raleigh, the president of the association, which was in the form of a message to the lawyers of the State. Reference was made by him to the legislative issues pending in North Carolina at this time, but no recommendations were offered.

Other speakers were Thomas S. Rollins, of Asheville, who delivered the address of welcome, and ex Congressman John D. Bellamy, of Wilmington, who made the response. Ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis and Judge Robert W. Winston, are on the programme for tomorrow. Friday Judge Stephen C. Bragaw, of Washington, N. C., will speak.

STEAMER SIOUX AFIRE

Report Received on Steamer Comus by Wireless

New York, July 2.—The Morgan Line steamer Comus, New York for New Orleans, sent a wireless message early this evening reporting the steamer Sioux on fire off Barnegat. The fire was not under control when the dispatch was sent.

The German tank steamer Sioux, 3,049 tons, Captain Lotze, sailed from New York today for Tuxpan, Mexico.

"Wilmington, N. C., July 1, 1913.

"To the Hon. Mayor and Councilmen, City of Wilmingtonfl

"Gentlemen: I am submitting for your consideration herewith, report of the work accomplished by the police department for the month ending June 30th, 1913, which is the first month that I have had charge of the department under the present administration. Much of my time has been taken up in getting the police force properly organized and in familiarizing myself with existing conditions. From the attached report, which shows a large number of arrests for drunks, disorderly conduct, vagrancy and violation of the prohibition law, the latter work being accomplished with very small additional cost to the city, I feel that much has been accomplished at the beginng of the present administration.

"Upon taking charge of this department, I ascertained that the prohibition law was being openly violated by the sale of mixed drinks, made strong by mixture of Jamaica ginger, and by the sale of intoxicating ciders carrying a high percentage of alcohol, which was being sold, and had been for over a year, by most of the grocery dealers. The sale of this cider has been practically stopped, the department taking the position that it was only fair to the dealers, who had sold it all along under the impression that they had the legal right to do so, to have the cider analyzed and serve notice upon the dealers to discontinue the sales. In this way the traffic has been stopped without the necessity of bringing the parties into court, with the few exceptions mentioned in my report.

"From the report it will be noticed that a large number of arrests have been made upon the charge of vagrancy, the department taking the position that this class of offenders are drones upon the community and that certain classes of crimes, notably residence and storebreaking are attributable to the idle and unemployed.

"Upon taking charge of the department, much complaint was being made of entries and breaking in to stores and residences, but this clas sof crime has been practically stopped, due to rigid enforcement of the vagrancy laws, which we propose to continue to do until the community has been rid of this class of offenders.

"The social evil has been minimized in the past by ridding the community, as far as the law would permit, of persons engaged in immoral life, but the removal of this class of persons has produced other conditions here, which, in my opinion, should appeal to the manhood of the community as a means of eradication and stamping out, the police department being without the authority or means of reaching the conditions as they exist.

"The general order here, especially at night, is good, officers on the night beats reporting very few persons loitering around after midnight, which are conditions which we propose to continue in existence.

"I am submitting the above remarks, in connection with my report, in order to give Council some idea of the work being accomplished and to outline the conditions here, as we view them. Very respectfully,

"N. J. WILLIAMS,
"Chief of Police."

Mr. John McAlister, superintendent of streets, submitted his report for June through Councilman Merritt, in charge of the Department of Streets and Wharves, as follows:

"Mr. B. A. Merritt, City.

"I beg to report to you in a rough way work done for month of June. Have completed Castle street from Seventh to Eighth; patched Chesnut street, from Fifth to Seventh, and put in new street from Fourth to Fifth; patched Walnut street, from Fourth to Seventh; Red Cross, Fourth to 11th; Market, from 10th to 17th. Cleared and hauled sand from gutters of above streets. Repaired holes in Fourth street from Campbell to Harnett. On Fourth street from Castle to Greenfield hauled 300 loads of sand that had washed in street from high lots and sidewalks and placed some in low lots along said street. Have hauled about 200 loads from Bonitz Hotel and placed same on Eighth and Marsteller streets using as foundation for road to Clark-Lynch Lumber Co. plant. Reset 400 feet curbing on Seventh street, Castle to Queen. Have built four sewer basins or sandtraps and cut all sandtraps in city open.

"Received car of oil and placed same on 19 blocks.

"Have thoroughly cleaned all alleys in business district and all improved streets weekly. Have painted (with old water paint) interior of city stables.

"Regarding trash, have endeavored to keep the streets as clear of same as possible. With the exception of South Castle street have had few complaints in this section. We only have one cart that covers territory from river to 14th street and from Castle to Greenfield, and we are compelled to haul same from this section to city stables.

"We thoroughly clean business section Saturday nights and take up all barrels and boxes that are left out after 12 o'clock.

"We would appreciate extra team for southern section of city to be used for trash. Would like to have ordinance regarding placing trash on street except in barrels or boxes published in daily papers so as to not make it hard on newcomers and then have same enforced. We will instruct our drivers to always place barrels, boxes etc. when empty in yards from where trash was taken except in downtown districts."

Chief Schnibben, of the fire department, reported nine alarms in June, causes as follows: Sparks from chimney, 3; unknown, 2; defective chimney, 1; electric iron, 1; spontaneous combustion, 1; carelessness, 1. The total fire loss for the month will not exceed $1,500, he reported.

MEETING OF PROGRESSIVES

the result was an outburst of wild violence, so that there practically remained no law, no constitution, no court, the authorities were forced to grapple with the actual need of things by instituting martial law.

"Judging from the letters published by Father Collins, a priest whose knowledge of the situation and devotion to the cause of labor seem to be unquestioned, it was necessary to declare martial law. But once order has been restored it is even more essential that the governmental authorities shall resolutely devote themselves to the destruction of the bitterly unjust conditions which were responsible for causing the anarchy.

"I wish I could make the men of property in this country, the big business men in New York, in Boston, in Providence, throughout our country, understand that in fighting such conditions as these in the bituminous coal fields, and in fighting such court decisions as those which I have quoted, I am fighting against anarchy, against the socialism of the I. W. W., and in favor of law and order and for property.

Good and Bad Trusts

"In dealing with big corporations, as in dealing with all business, it is an absolute necessity for us to abandon the utter folly of discriminating against them on the ground of size instead of on the ground of conduct. Combinations may exist for a good purpose just as they may exist for a bad purpose, whether among business men, among farmers, among laborers; and as regards all of them our aim should be effectively to suppress combinations that work evil, and also to favor those that do well, while nevertheless exercising over them such thoroughgoing control as to enable us to be sure that they in very fact do well, alike to competitors, to wage workers and to the general public.

"Our proposal is to put the government, acting for the general public, in such shape that it will not ask justice as a favor but demand it as a right which it is ready and able to enforce. The constitution belongs to the people and not the people to the constitution; and the courts are the servants of the people precisely as is true of all other public servants, legislative and executive alike. It is for the people and not the courts to say whether we shall have such laws in the interest of social and industrial justice, acts providing for cash payment in wages and abolishing these company stores.

"In the words of Abraham Lincoln, we propose that the people shall control both the Legislatures and the courts, not to prevert the constitution, but to overthrow those who themselves pervert the constitution into an instrument for perpetuating injustice, instead of making it what it must and shall be made, the most effective of all possible means for securing to the people of the whole country the right everywhere to create conditions which will tend for the uplift of the ordinary, the average men, women and children of the United States."

Pleads for Adequate Navy

Colonel Roosevelt also made a plea for the maintenance of adequate naval strength. Congressmen who vote against two battleships a year, he said, were "on a level with men voted against fortifying Hawaii and our stations in the West Indies. These men men are unfit to represent the American people, and they by their actions invite National disaster and humiliation."

He characterized as wicked any advocation of arbitration where National honor and interests are concerned, and said that to enforce the Monroe Doctrine, to retain Panama, Alaska and our insular possessions, to determine what aliens and on what terms they shall come to this country demanded the power to "back up our words with deeds."

ON "REST CRUISE"

The President Spends Day at Hampton Roads Aboard Mayflower

Newport News, Va., July 2.—President Woodrow Wilson spent nearly the entire day in Hampton Roads just off Old Point Comfort wharf, in his private yacht, the Mayflower today, but not until an hour before his departure for Washington, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, was the fact that the President of the United States was in the Roads discovered by guests at the resort, and the public at large.

AILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Hilbert Tells of Her Distressing Symptoms During Change of Life and How She Found Relief.

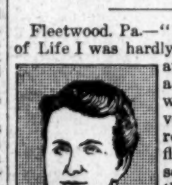
Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do.



"One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine from a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."—Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system. It has carried many women safely through this crisis.
